CHINA BLOCKS RETURN OF 22,000 INDIAN STUDENTS

However, Beijing has allowed students from countries like Sri Lanka, Pakistan and Thailand to come back to China

PRACTICALS PENDING FOR MEDICAL STUDENTS

Thousands of Indian students have enrolled in Chinese universities, mostly to study medicine. They came back to India two years ago when the pandemic started. The students have been attending classes online but it's time for many of them to do practicals. For this, they have to travel to China for in-person classes. But, Beijing is not letting them come back | P9

BEIJING YET TO GIVE A FIRM RESPONSE

- Union Health Minister Dr Mansukh Mandaviya has written to Foreign Secretary Harsh Vardhan Shringla to help facilitate the return of Indian students to China to complete their study
- The Indian government is in touch with China, which has neither given a firm response nor has issued visas to Indian students

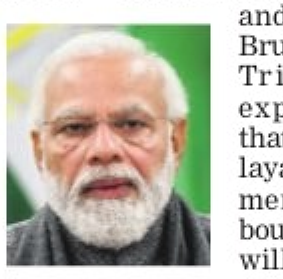
Efforts on to lift AFSPA in toto: Modi

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @Guwahati

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi on Thursday said efforts were on to withdraw the Armed Forces (Special Powers) Act (AFSPA) from the remaining areas of the Northeast.

Addressing a "Peace, Unity and Development Rally" in Assam's Karbi Anglong, he said old rules were being tweaked as peace was making a steady return to the Northeast as a result of the collective efforts of the state governments and the people.

"AFSPA remained enforced in many states of the Northeast for a long time but after the return of permanent peace and also due to better administration in the past eight years, we removed it from many areas," the PM said.



He added that incidents of violence in the Northeast had dropped by around 75%. This is why AFSPA was first removed from Tripura and then Meghalaya. AFSPA had been invoked in Assam for three decades but with the improvement in the overall security situation in the past few years, it was removed from 23 districts.

"We are trying to normalise the situation in other areas as well so that AFSPA can be removed."

Modi highlighted how the Centre's efforts had helped solve the problem of insurgency in Assam's Bodo areas, Karbi Anglong and in Tripura and the Bru (Reang) problem of Tripura-Mizoram. He expressed happiness that Assam and Meghalaya reached an agreement to resolve their boundary disputes. This will give impetus to the development aspirations of the region, he added.

Later in the day, he inaugurated seven cancer hospitals and laid the foundation of as many others across the state, virtually from Dibrugarh. Three more cancer hospitals are expected to be operational by the year-end.

In all, 17 advanced cancer hospitals would be ready in Assam by the time it celebrates the third anniversary of the BJP-led coalition government in May 2024. These hospitals have been/are being built with funds from Tata Trusts and the state government.

Tata Trusts chairman Ratan Tata said, "Today is a... day that raises Assam to a higher level in terms of health care and treatment of cancer that has not been experienced by the other states in the country."

BOMMAI, OPPN NETAS WADE INTO HINDI ROW, DEFEND SUDEEP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE Twitter war between actors Kiccha Sudeep and Ajay Devgn on Hindi as the national language, has taken a political turn, with leaders of all political hues defending Sudeep.

While Congress and JDS leaders slammed the Bollywood actor as well as the BJP government for attempting to impose Hindi on all states, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, his cabinet ministers and the Kannada cinema fraternity came forward to defend Sudeep's stand.

The opposition hit out at Devgn for calling Hindi "Rashtrabhasha", while Karnataka Rakshana Vedike members staged a protest in Bengaluru against the actor.

In Hubballi, Bommai told reporters that whatever Sudeep had tweeted was correct. "After states were formed based on region, the regional language is supreme for those states, and one has to respect it,'' he said.

In a series of tweets, former CM HD Kumaraswamy defended Sudeep. "Ajay Devgan is not only hyper in nature but also shows his ludicrous behaviour. Devgan must realise that Kannada cinema is outgrowing Hindi film industry," he said.

Kumaraswamy said Hindi cinema has grown because of encouragement by Kannadigas. Devgn shouldn't forget that his first movie, 'Phool aur Kaante', ran for a year in Bengaluru. "An addiction for primacy is dividing the country," he said.

Minister for Higher Education Dr C N Ashwath Narayan said the top priority in the state is for Kannada, but it is necessary to treat "Hindi as the communicative language at the national level".

Panel will be set up to curb hate speech: CM

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Hubballi

THE State will form a committee to curb hate speech, in accordance with instructions of the Supreme Court, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai said here on Thursday.

He told reporters that the apex court's order would be strictly followed. However, he felt that hate speech is on the rise all over the country, especially on social media platforms.

Recently, in its verdict on hate speeches aired during the Dharam Sansad held in Himachal Pradesh and Uttarakhand, the apex court had called for zero tolerance on the part of Central and state governments, and directed states to form special task forces to prevent hate crimes. It also insisted on gathering intelligence reports on people who are likely to air hate speeches.

Apart from setting up a task force, the court also directed Central and state governments to take steps to stop dissemination of irresponsible and explosive messages, videos and other material on social media platforms, which have a tendency to incite mob violence and lynchings.

Replying to a query, Bommai said that people of all religions have coexisted and lived peacefully in India. However, in other countries, terrorism is being spread in the name of religion. If everybody follows what the Constitution says, peace will prevail. No one should advise others on maintaining communal harmony, he added.

THE FUEL CESS-POOL

A big part of the fuel taxes the Centre collects needs to be shared with states, right? But the mop-up workaround is through cess, which is not shared and forms the bulk of the central taxes. Here's how:

1 Centre collects ₹26.50 as cess out of the total ₹27.90 tax on petrol per litre. It means only ₹1.4 is shared with states. As for diesel, only ₹1.80 is shared out of the total tax of ₹21.80

2 According to the 15th Finance Commission report, Centre has to share 41% of the divisible pool of taxes. However, divisible pool does not include cess

3 Over five years till FY21, the Centre's fuel tax went up by 54%, while that of states grew just 15%. Of the total ₹6.37 lakh crore tax collected in FY21, Centre pocketed 66%

COMPONENTS OF CENTRAL EXCISE

FUEL	Basic excise duty (₹/ltr)	CESSES
		Special additional excise duty (₹/ltr)	Agri infra & development cess (AIDC) (₹/ltr)	Additional excise duty (road and infra cess) (₹/ltr)
Petrol	1.40	11	2.50	13
Diesel	1.80	8	4	8

Surprise raids on Amazon, Flipkart anchor sellers

RAM SAHGAL @Mumbai

THE Competition Commission of India (CCI) has conducted raids on the premises of anchor sellers of Amazon and Flipkart across Delhi, Bengaluru and Mumbai to probe complaints of predatory pricing and deep discounting.

The raided firms include Cloudtail and Appario Retail, the former a joint venture between Amazon and N R Narayana Murthy's Catamaran and the latter with Patni group.

"There was an element of cluelessness and surprise among sellers as the CCI normally doesn't conduct raids in such matters," said a source.

"Probably, some clarity could emerge by Friday by when sellers can decide their course of action," another source said.

The CCI and Amazon did not immediately respond to TNIE queries on the raids while Flipkart could not be immediately contacted for comment.

Amazon and Flipkart also have stakes in some sellers who list on their platforms.

This often leads to allegations of conflict of interest as such sellers, backed by the ecommerce giants' deep pockets, resort to predatory pricing and deep discounting to attract customers.

Lauding the CCI for the action, Praveen Khandelwal, secretary-general of Confederation of All India Traders, said, "The CAIT has been raising strong objections against malpractices of Amazon and Flipkart. He said Murthy's role should also be investigated.

Spurned stalker throws acid on woman in B'luru

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

REJECTING a marriage proposal turned tragic for a 24-year-old woman, after the spurned lover threw acid on her, outside her office in Sunkadakatte on Thursday morning. The victim, who works as a cashier with a gold finance company, suffered 40 to 50 per cent burns and is undergoing treatment.

The accused Nagesh (27), a garment factory employee, is on the run. He is said to have been in love with the victim, but she did not reciprocate. The knew each other as they had worked together at a garment factory for over two years.

Despite knowing that she was engaged to another man, Nagesh had approached the woman's aunt with a marriage proposal. Upset with her approaching marriage, he started harassing her.

The accused is alleged to have gone to her workplace on Wednesday evening, and pestered her to marry him. An argument broke out, and the victim's colleagues threatened to call the police if he troubled her. Assuring them that he would not trouble her, the accused returned on Thursday, around 8.30am. "The woman's father dropped her to office on a bike. Since the office had not opened, she waited at the door. Nagesh came near the office and she saw that he was holding something in a bag. She tried to run outside the building, and the accused followed and threw acid on her," said an officer. P5

BSF jawan gets rare airlift from LoC post to get married

FAYAZ WANI & ASHISH MEHTA
@Srinagar / Bhubaneswar

EVACUATING soldiers and civilians by air from remote locations happens all the time during exigencies. The thumb rule till now has been to fly them out if they require immediate medical attention.

For the first time in the Border Security Force's history, it added another factor to the exigency list — marriage. It allowed airlifting a jawan from his post along the Line of Control (LoC) in Jammu and Kashmir so as to help him reach home in Odisha time for his wedding on Monday.

BSF constable Narayana Behera (30), a resident of Adipur village of Dhenkanal district of Odisha, is posted at Machil sector along the LoC in north Kashmir. He is scheduled to get married on May 2. But since snow-bound Machil's road link to Srinagar is not open yet, he put in a request for airlifting as a special case.

His unit commanders escalated the matter to BSF Inspector General (Kashmir frontier) Raja Babu Singh. Sensing the urgency, IG Singh granted permission, saying welfare of troops was his "first and foremost priority."

SOURAV ROY

In view of the poor weather, it was decided to airlift him on Thursday. He was flown out in a Cheetah helicopter from the LoC to Srinagar in the morning, an officer said. Happily, the weather gods were accommodative. Had it been scheduled for a little later, the flight might not have been possible as weather condition deteriorated soon enough.

After reaching Srinagar, Behera boarded a Delhi-bound plane from where he was to take a connecting flight to Bhubaneswar.

Behera expressed his gratitude to his Commandant, IG and DIG of BSF Kashmir for the airlift. "I am posted in such a difficult terrain that I had to request my Commandant to airlift me so that I can tie the knot. All jawans are confident that whenever they need any help, the seniors will come forward to their rescue," said Behera, who was in Delhi when this report was filed. "My father Khageswar Behera and all other family members are very happy that I am returning home," he told TNIE.

Airtel hangs up, retired CA fights case for ₹20 refund

YATHIRAJU @Bengaluru

BHARTI Airtel Limited was directed to refund Rs 20 and ex parte to pay Rs 500 each towards damages and litigation expenses to AM Hussain Shareef, who fought his legal battle on his own with the help of an online legal firm before the Consumer Commission.

Shareef, a retired chartered accountant, stays with his son at Doddakanalli. He had recharged Rs 49 which expired on August 4, 2021. On August 7, 2021, he recharged Rs 20 online, which was confirmed by a message. The talk time was Rs 14.95 but the incoming and outgoing calls were stopped on that day, and he got a message informing him that the recharge was invalid. After repeated attempts and losing his money, he approached an online legal platform which assisted him and charged a nominal fee to prepare the complaint which was filed in November 2021.

The Bangalore Additional District Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission not only directed Airtel to refund Rs 20 but also ordered ex parte to pay Rs 500 each as damages and litigation expenses to Shareef. P5

Archbishop of Bangalore Dr Peter Machado and Clarence High School Principal Jerry George Mathews address the media at the school auditorium on Thursday | EXPRESS

Moral values taught: Clarence School Principal

Parents very well informed, says Dr Mathews

SHILPA P @ Bengaluru

AMIDST the controversy over allegedly forcing students to study the Bible, Clarence High School Principal Dr Jerry George Mathews said that they only teach moral values from the stories of the Bible in their moral science classes.

The parents are informed about it, and they voluntarily sign the declaration accepting it after orientation, he said, and added that none of the students including those from other communities are forced to carry the Bible or attend moral science classes.

The marks obtained in the moral science exam are not included in the merit to promote students, and those who do well in the subject are only given some prizes, he said.

If the government asks them to teach values from stories of Bhagavad Gita and Quran too in their moral science classes, they will do it from next academic year, he said, and added that if the government asks them to drop moral science classes, they will consider it too.

The Education Department had issued a show cause notice in this regard to the school.

Dr Mathews said that exposure to moral values is an essential component of a student's holistic development. Moral science has been part of their education since the inception of the school in 1914 in which more than 75 per cent of their students are Christians. The values imparted in their moral science classes have strong foundation for the life of their alumni who are serving in various sectors across the world and even in the Armed Forces. The teaching of moral values has multiplied the admissions to the school, he said.

"We have been, we are and we will be a law-abiding school. And we are in conformity with every law of the land. School is conscious of its responsibilities. Our legal experts will respond to the show cause notice. Even after this row, no parent has contacted us on dropping moral science classes. In fact parents have encouraged us to continue the moral education," he said.

> Whether the students like it or not any education institution cannot have religious text as part of their syllabus. We welcome their decision to set their mistake right. We are yet to receive response to the show cause notice, for which they have seven days. Once they respond, we will forward it to legal department.

Ugandan student's death sparks stir at university

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

A 21-year-old final year administration student from Uganda studying at Gitam University in the outskirts of Bengaluru fell from the sixth floor of the Kokila Sadan Girls Hostel at Nagadenehalli in Doddaballapura in Bengaluru rural police limits.

Following the incident, students at the boys hostel which is almost 10 feet away from the girls hostel staged a protest. Suspecting that the student has committed suicide and the university authorities are trying to cover-up the incident, the students have ransacked the hostel premises demanding entry inside the girls hostel as they wanted to check. They smashed glass window panes and threw stones, following which police resorted to lathi-charge to disperse the agitating students.

The victim Agasha Hasina, a Uganda national was pursuing her final year in Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA).

> Prima facie it appears to be a case of accidental fall. The victim had put some clothes to dry on the seventh floor of the hostel campus.
> Nagaraj, Deputy Superintendent of Police, Doddaballapura sub-division

"Prima facie it appears to be a case of accidental fall. The victim had put some clothes to dry on the seventh floor of the hostel campus. A cloth had fallen on the teflon sheet of the sixth floor. Thinking that the sheet is hard, she reportedly stepped on it to take the cloth and fell down after the sheet broke. The incident happened at around 8.20 pm on Wednesday night. She was rushed to the nearby private hospital within 20 minutes of the incident where she was declared brought dead," Nagaraj, Deputy Superintendent of Police, Doddaballapura sub-division told TNIE

"There were a few girl students who had seen her falling and rushed towards her after she started screaming for help. No foreign student is involved in the protest or ransacking. No student has been taken into custody. The postmortem report is awaited and her parents have been asked to email the authorisation letter. The body is in the mortuary of the private hospital," the DySP added.

BDA to add more amenities at Sampangi Tank for Karaga

S LALITHA @ Bengaluru

TO improve the amenities for devotees during the century-old Karaga festival held annually, the Bangalore Development Authority (BDA) will be upgrading facilities at the Sampangi Tank by next year. The BDA has earmarked Rs 4 crore for it, said a senior BDA official.

During the city's oldest religious festival, the 'Hasi Karaga' is organised at this tank, one of the oldest in the city, on the seventh day of the auspicious occasion, before the Karaga is accompanied to the Shri Dharmaraya Swamy temple at Thigalarpet, said MLC and former Mayor P R Ramesh, also a leader of the Thigala community. "It is of much significance and held to mark the emergence of Mother Draupadi. The event has been held at this tank for over 300 years," he said.

Though a major portion of the tank has given way to the Sree Kanteevera Stadium, part of it has been earmarked for Karaga-related rituals. "Devotees wait for hours to witness the proceedings. We want a gallery near it from where the public can comfortably see everything. At present, they sit on the ground or stand. We also want to have a separate room for the priests and another room for the puja items to be preserved throughout the year," said Ramesh.

BDA Chairman and Yelahanka MLA SR Vishwanath had shown a keen interest in goading the authority to take a pro-active role in this request for better facilities, Ramesh said.

K Satish, president of the Karaga organising committee, confirmed that BDA had assured them of Rs 4 crore to improve facilities near the tank. The BDA official said, "We are in the process of preparing a Detailed Project Report in connection with upgradation of facilities. We have called for a quotation to select the consultant."

BBMP officials asked to finish work

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

BBMP Chief Commissioner Gaurav Gupta and administrator Rakesh Singh on Thursday held a review meeting with officers in connection with the works taken up by BBMP, and directed them to finish work while maintaining quality.

They instructed the officials to ensure that the roads in the city, especially those taken up under the Smart City Project, are in a good condition devoid of potholes.

Footpaths must be repaired, and cleaned, the broken slab stones should be either replaced or removed, and the debris, illegal OFC cables should be removed, they ordered.

Flex banners and hoardings should be removed and it should be ensured that they are not be put up again. Street lights should function properly. Zonal level officials were asked to inspect the works taken up by BBMP frequently including the solid waste management, and storm water development works.

Officials should be alert during the rainy season, and should respond to the complaints immediately, they said.

Adichunchanagiri Math pontiff, ex-NIMHANS director to be awarded RGUHS hon doctorates

Bengaluru: A hundred gold medals and three honorary doctorates will be handed out as part of the Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences (RGUHS) convocation on Saturday. In addition three people will be awarded honorary doctorates in recognition of their contributions in their respective fields. They are Adichunchanagiri Math pontiff Dr Nirmalanandanatha Mahaswamiji, former NIMHANS director, Dr B N Gangadhar, and a renowned paediatrician Dr Rajan Deshpande. Speaking at a Press conference on Thursday, RGUHS Vice-Chancellor MK Ramesh said that the total overall passing percentage for all faculties together has improved to 82.25 per cent from 82 per cent last year. A total of 43,883 students will be conferred their degrees, of which 82 are PhD candidates. A total of 83 students will be awarded gold medals for excellence in studies.

PRR bidders demand more time, say one-year period to complete project is too small BENGALURU: The pre-bid meeting for the 73-km Peripheral Ring Road (PRR) had eight bidders evincing keen interest in the project but they demanded more time to place bids as well as for the completion of the project. BDA will now write to the State government seeking its guidance. "The deadline for the bid is May 18," a BDA official said. They also said the one-year period to complete the eight-lane PRR was too less and need at least 2.5 years, he said. Requests would be submitted to the government, a top official said.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

29th April: Choices abound today as the Sun and Moon adopt different positions. As ever, we can all make a decision as to which path we follow, while remembering that nothing has to be forever. We can go through one door while keeping the other open. That knowledge should offer the reassurance we need.

ARIES
(Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
The better you have come to terms with whatever happened long ago, the more prepared you will be to deal with excitable emotional influences, now. It does appear as if a close partner is sending you conflicting signals. But, then, that seems to be quite normal, these days.

TAURUS
(Apr. 21 - May 21)
Complex planetary patterns offer a sign to all, but for those who have their heads completely buried in the sand, changes are afoot! Actually, it's your attitudes which should shift, first. Success will result from taking a principled stand and it's surprising how partners respect you if you seize the moral high ground.

GEMINI
(May 22 - June 21)
It now seems inevitable that you will have to alter your stance over home or family affairs. However, it may now be best to wait about four or five days before confirming existing arrangements. By then, current uncertainties will have cleared up.

CANCER
(June 22 - July 23)
The combined impact of Venus and Libra on your sensitive psyche is enough to persuade you that what is needed now is a romantic interlude devoid of complications or expectations on either side, if such a thing is possible. A turn for the better at work is now just around the corner.

LEO
(July 24 - Aug. 23)
You cannot help but express your true emotions and, in the process, give other people a much firmer understanding of who you are and where you're heading. In the long run this can only be to the good, for partners will appreciate a better sense of your plans.

VIRGO
(Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
You should already have taken any major decisions affecting the general structure and pattern of your life. From now on, you will have to focus on the details one by one. Start by reconsidering joint financial arrangements, especially those which you may have been entered into without enough thought.

LIBRA
(Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
Whatever happens now, remember that you are in command. In the old days your sign was associated with war as much as with peace, so don't shrink from taking a tough stand if gentle persuasion doesn't work. It's about time other people saw that you meant business.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
Your private affairs are your business and nobody else's. There are therefore likely to be many instances when you have to distance yourself from people who are taking you for granted or peering too closely into your activities. They will just have to learn, won't they?

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Battles and conflicts at work must be taken in your stride as part and parcel of an inevitable teething process. New people and fresh ideas always require a period of adjustment which may be difficult, even if temporary. The pleasure comes when it's all over.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
If you are tired of being put-upon or taken for granted, now is your chance to correct the balance. However, it will be naive to imagine that other people will take your complaints lying down. You should understand just how close you have come to success in a personal matter - and will be again, very soon.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
You haven't been misguided, but you may have been misinformed. However, Mercury's changing position offers hope that you will once again be able to see the broader picture, restoring a balanced perspective. You'll be much more concerned with the basic facts.

PISCES
(Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
There's still plenty to be accomplished at home before you can relax. Today's lunar influences suggest that your family is more important to your happiness and security than you often imagine. Your sense of beauty is at its peak, and you'll be creating a sensitive, harmonious environment.

Hydrate to beat the heat, beware of tummy flu

Uptick in cases of dehydration, UTI; kids need spl care this summer

CHETANA BELAGERE
@ Bengaluru

WITH the city witnessing higher than normal temperatures, hospitals in Bengaluru are seeing a rise in cases of dehydration, leading to an uptick in heat-related disorders, especially stomach infections and urinary tract infections (UTI) among children.

The state capital is consistently experiencing above normal temperatures in the past few days. With temperatures expected to soar higher, doctors say, "Bengaluru has never been hotter. We commonly see summer infections like the tummy flu, which is basically acute gastroenteritis. Due to contaminated food or water, children often have tummy-related infections, along with stomach pain, fever for one or two days, vomiting, followed by loose stools," explains Dr Supraja Chandrashekar, Paediatric Intensivist, Manipal Hospital, Yeshwantpur.

Meanwhile, gynaecologists say they usually see more UTI cases in summer, the reason being severe water loss and low urge to urinate. The bladder is flushed less, which can lead to the formation of bacteria, and the longer the bacteria sustains, higher the chances of infection.

The key to all these issues is hydration, say doctors. "Medicines are usually not required. We often start children on probiotics. Most often, we don't want to use antibiotics. It's important to hydrate children with fluids that have a balanced composition of salt, sugar and water," explained Dr Supraja.

As summer peaks, children start getting affected, warns Dr Rajath Athreya, Senior Consultant and HOD, Paediatrics and Neonatology, Sakra World Hospital. He says parents and caregivers need to be cautious about heat exhaustion, dehydration and sunburn.

"It is advisable that outdoor activities are limited to before 11am and after 3pm or 4pm. When playing outdoors, it is important to dress them in loose fitting white cotton clothes, and wide-brimmed hats also help," he said.

Children should have ready access to drinking water, say doctors. Young infants may not tolerate the hot sun outdoors for long, and it is important to use sunscreen with SPF of 30 or more. "Young infants who are still breastfeeding should not be wrapped in several layers of clothing," said Dr Rajath.

PM'S ADVICE

With the temperature and heat wave increasing across the country, Health Minister Dr K Sudhakar on Thursday took to Twitter and tweeted Prime Minister Narendra Modi's statement on precautions to be taken. "With hitherto unseen levels of mercury, we are prone to heat strokes, exhaustion and dehydration. Stay in the shade, when possible; stay hydrated and help others whenever necessary. Take special care of children, the elderly and persons with disabilities," he tweeted.

CHILD UNWELL?

- Hydrate the child with fluids like tender coconut water, ORS, rice porridge, etc
- Administer paracetamol or Ibuprofen to bring temperature down
- Avoid use of antibiotics
- Give healthy and hygienic food, clean water, fruits and juices
- Protect skin with simple things like caps and umbrellas, use sunscreen

Alcohol addict dies by suicide by shooting himself with double barrel gun

BENGALURU: A 62-year-old alcohol addict has died by suicide by shooting himself with a double barrel gun. The victim has been identified as Bidappa, 62, a retired private firm employee. The incident happened at his house in Coffee Board Layout in Amruthahalli. Bidappa is said to have had a fight with his family members on Thursday morning. His wife had gone to Malleswaram with her son. Initially she wanted to take her husband. As he was drunk, she took her son which is said to have angered the victim. "The wife and son had left home at around 11 am on Thursday. When they returned home at 1 pm, they found him dead. The victim has shot himself with a double barrel gun," said an officer. ENS

Harsha murder accused create ruckus in jail

ENS @ Bengaluru

THE accused in the murder case of Bajrang Dal activist Harsha lodged at Bengaluru Central Prison in Parappana Agrahara reportedly created a ruckus by refusing to be taken into custody by the National Investigation Agency (NIA). Harsha was murdered in Shivamogga last month.

Sources said that 10 people held in connection with the murder are lodged in the prison. NIA officials arrived on Wednesday morning to take five of them into their custody. "The five created a ruckus by banging their heads against the wall and smashing some window panes. They demanded that they should not be sent to police custody until the Ramzan gets over. However, officers intervened and they were given to NIA custody after a medical check up. Five more will be taken into custody in a few days," an official said.

High Court rejects permission for May Day rally

ENS @ Bengaluru

OBSERVING that there is no question of granting permission to take out a procession in the city, considering traffic hindrance to the public, the Karnataka High Court on Thursday declined to grant permission for trade unions to carry out a procession from the City Railway Station to Freedom Park, and Town Hall to Freedom Park on May Day in Bengaluru.

A vacation division bench of Justice R Devdas and Justice KS Hemalekha passed the order, while disposing of the impleading applications filed by the All India Trade Union Congress and others, seeking permission for the May 1 procession.

Considering the cascading effect on day-to-day activities in the city, including traffic, the court had on March 3, 2022 directed the State government to ensure that no protests, processions are held in the city except at Freedom Park, by political or non-political organisations. It also said that such processions, protests and marches are held in an organised manner and traffic is not adversely affected, especially during rush hour.

The court also directed that no activity which disrupts traffic shall be permitted to be carried out, and in case any such activity is held, appropriate action should be taken and the responsibility fixed on agencies meant for providing proper traffic regulations.

Citing modification of this order by the court to allow 'Karaga' procession, counsels of the applicants submitted that the court may grant permission or issue directions to the jurisdictional police to permit the applicant-unions and their members to take out the peaceful procession and hold a meeting at Freedom Park. However, the court said that the procession sought to be carried out cannot be compared with Karaga procession. If the members of the applicants walk on footpath to the Freedom Park, there is no need for them to seek permission but they cannot take out procession, the court added.

BOMMAI OFF TO DELHI TODAY, CABINET REJIG NOT ON AGENDA

Will be attending conference of chief justices and CMs, will seek meeting with Nadda, Shah

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @ Bengaluru

UNLIKE Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai's previous visits to the national capital kicking off speculation about a cabinet rejig, his two-day visit, starting Friday night, failed to evoke any curiosity in political circles. Ministerial aspirants who had lobbied earlier, seem to have realised that it will not work as the party high command will take a call in its own time.

"I will be leaving for Delhi on Friday night to participate in the conference of chief ministers and chief justices of all states, slated to be held on Saturday. There is no possibility of meeting the party top brass as I have not sought their appointment," Bommai clarified. He will be returning to Bengaluru on Sunday morning.

According to sources, he will try to seek an appointment with both BJP National President J P Nadda and Union Home Minister Amit Shah.

When he had visited New Delhi on April 6, many aspirants, including MP Renukacharya, were in the capital too. "I will not be going to New Delhi this time as I have to concentrate on my constituency. But if the high command provides an opportunity, I am ready to serve," Renukacharya told TNIE. Since assembly elections are approaching, aspirants are getting busy in their constituencies, remarked a party functionary. To that extent, the BJP high command had managed to keep dissidence at bay, or a reshuffle could have boomeranged as there is competition within communities, especially Panchamasali Lingayat leaders. Inducting an aspirant into the cabinet could result in unhappiness among others, and pave the way for dissidence in an election year, observed a leader.

The party high command is likely to take a decision later, as five berths in the Bommai cabinet are vacant. The party is eyeing Old Mysuru region -- from Chitradurga to Chamarajanagara -- and may give it more representation, as Bommai had hinted recently. But the ball is now in the court of the high command.

In Belagavi, Bommai said, "There is no discussion on expansion of the state cabinet as yet. I can speak about it only when the subject is discussed by the high command and a decision is taken. Belagavi is the largest district and will definitely be considered during the cabinet expansion.''

CM Basavaraj Bommai listens to grievances of people in Hubballi on Thursday

CM PLANS TO MAKE SHIGGAON A TEXTILE HUB

HAVERI: Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai has plans to make his constituency Shiggaon a textile and garments hub. "We have invited textile industries and educational institutions to invest here," Bommai said after laying the foundation stone for Shahi readymade garments factory at Munuvalli village near Shiggaon in Haveri district on Thursday. Bommai said that on the lines of Tirupur in Tamil Nadu and Bengaluru, Shiggaon will be developed into a textile hub. "To set up a textile park here, the government has already released Rs 29 crore. It will provide employment to 4,000 people. With the development of industries in Haveri district, 10,000 people will get jobs by next April," he added. Under the Bengaluru-Mumbai Industrial Corridor (BMIC) project, industrial townships will come up at Belagavi, Dharwad, Haveri, Davanagere and Chitradurga. To set up an industrial township in Haveri, the government has instructed the officials to identify 1,000 acres of land in the district. To encourage the dairy sector in Haveri, the work of setting up a separate mega dairy in the district is under progress, he added. ENS

BATTLE 2023

BJP strives to get all equations right

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

WITH less than a year for the next Assembly elections in Karnataka, the BJP is likely to give prominence to regional representation and social engineering in both the government and organisational set up besides giving adequate representation to the two major communities-- Vokkaligas and the Lingayats.

As Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai hails from the Lingayat community, the BJP is likely to make a Vokkaliga leader from South Karnataka as state party president to strike a balance. The move is also to counter the JDS and state Congress chief DK Shivakumar—also a Vokkaliga—in the Old Mysuru region.

Now, in order to win more seats, the BJP leadership is said to be mulling making Union Minister of State for Agriculture Shobha Karandlaje as the party state president. The term of the current state BJP chief Nalin Kumar Kateel ends in August. The names of Higher Education Minister Dr CN Ashwath Narayan and BJP national general secretary CT Ravi are also making the rounds.

With former chief minister and Lingayat strongman B S Yediyurappa still showing enthusiasm, he may be appealed to spearhead the party's 2023 campaign. If his son BY Vijayendra is not made a minister, he may also stand a chance to become the campaign committee head to counter KPCC campaign committee chairman MB Patil who has been campaigning for separate religious minority status for the Lingayats, sources said.

The party high command has also planned to make use of the experience of ministers Kota Srinivasa Pujary and Sunil kumar and former RDPR minister K S Eshwarappa. "The party will not let Eshwarappa down and hence instructed him not to vacate the government quarters as he may get a clean chit in the contractor Santhosh Patil's suicide case", a BJP leader told TNIE.

SUMALATHA'S NEXT MOVE AFTER TALKS WITH SUPPORTERS

BENGALURU: With speculation rife that Sumalatha, independent Mandya MP, will join the BJP, the first-time MP has said that she is in no hurry to join a political party and will take a final decision after gathering opinion from her supporters. Sumalatha, wife of actor-politician Ambareesh, said that she will tour all the taluks of Mandya to gauge the pulse of her supporters before announcing her decision. She, however, claimed that she has got an invite from all political parties and recalled that her husband had a good rapport with leaders of all parties. Clarifying that she has not held political discussions with her supporters in Maddur, Sumalatha said that she just briefed them on the MPLAD funds released after two years due to the pandemic. On the Twitter war between actors Sudeep and Ajay Devgn, she said, " The actors themsel-ves have put an end to the controversy. I have clarified my stand on Kannada in the Parliament." Sumalatha said that the question of 'one nation, one language' does not arise. She warned that no one will keep quiet if Kannada and sentiments of Kannadigas are hurt.

Priyank replies to CID notice, says it aims at targeting political opponents

RAMKRISHNA BADSESHI @ Kalaburagi

FORMER minister and KPCC spokesperson Priyank Kharge on Thursday replied to the notice issued to him by the CID probing the PSI recruitment scam. In his six-page reply, Priyank said, "The issuance of aforesaid notice under Sections 91 and 160 of CrPc is concerned, it is rather strange that the CID has taken the recourse to such a mechanism."

He said the current dispensation wants to scuttle and stifle free speech and, in the process, destroy the democratic fabric by issuing such notices to opposition leaders.

Priyank has further explained that "I am an elected representative from one of the constituencies in Kalaburagi district the epicentre for the scam that CID is currently investigating. Further, as an elected representative I am privy to various information that are in public domain not only to that of my constituency (Chittapur) but also of Kalaburagi. It is in this regard that I was quite baffled to know that insofar as the information that CID have now sought from myself through the notice, the said information has been in public domain for quite some time now. As an investigating agency, CID should have been the first to collect and collate such information before anybody else".

Pointing to Section 91 of the Criminal Procedure Code referred to in the notice, he said that the provision allows the CID the power to summon a person to produce a document or a thing. "In the present instance, your notice being vague and baseless is glaringly in excess of the jurisdiction bestowed upon you by Section 91. You have issued notice not for the purpose of any free and fair investigation, but to placate your political bosses to whom I stand as political opponents," he said. Priyank has urged the DG of CID and its officers to refrain from issuing such "frivolous, baseless and unsubstantiated notices in exercising their power." Meanwhile, Kharge was served a second notice on Thursday.

Meanwhile, CID sleuths have arrested one Jyoti Patil, an employee of Shahabad city municipality, in connection with the case.

Araga warns of stern action against PSI scam accused Divya

BENGALRURU: As the CID probing the PSI recruitment scam is looking for accused Divya Hagaragi, Karnataka Home Minister Araga Jnanendra on Thursday said her assets will be confiscated. An arrest warrant has been issued and her assets will be confiscated soon, Araga said and asked her to surrender. The CID has already arrested several persons, including Divya's husband Rajesh, in connection with the scam. Divya was the president of Kalaburagi district BJP Mahila Morcha. While the Congress has accused the State Government of protecting the accused in the case, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai and Araga have said that stern action will be taken against all those involved in the irregularities. "We have ordered a CID probe and action will be taken against the guilty," Araga added.

LANGUAGE WAR

Nothing wrong, Nirani on Hindi as natl language

ENS @ Mysuru

Industries Minister Murugesh Nirani said that as a Kannadiga, he loves Kannada, but there is nothing wrong with considering Hindi as the national language.

On Bollywood actor Ajay Devgn favouring Hindi as the national language, he said the demand to make Hindi the national language has been there, and should not be mistaken. "Though English is not the local language, one should learn English to communicate in foreign countries, and learning more languages will enrich culture," he said, adding that he comes from a rural background and has a special love for Kannada.

KDA slams KMF for not using Kannada on milk packets

BENGALURU: The Kannada Development Authority (KDA) has criticised Karnataka Milk Federation (KMF) for using only English on milk packets in certain regions of the state. KDA chairman TS Nagabharana said they have received complaints in this regard and have directed KMF to use Kannada at the top of the packet.

Nagabharana visited the office of the general manager of the Karnataka Cooperative Milk Producers' Federation Ltd for a review meeting on Thursday. Nagabharana said that the KMF sources milk directly from milk producers. "Milk and other dairy products are sent to Tamil Nadu, Andhra Pradesh and other southern states... Kannada on dairy packets will popularise the language," he added. He also said that KMF's toned milk packets had only English printed on them, which many people objected to. This is a violation of the language policy of Karnataka, he added.

THIS IS A THREAT TO INDIA'S UNITY, SAYS KUMARASWAMY

KUMARASWAMY also slammed the BJP for sowing a seed which is dividing the nation. "This is a threat to India's unity," he tweeted. Opposition leader Siddaramaiah said Hindi was not the national language, and never will be. "It is the duty of every Indian to respect the linguistic diversity of our country. Each language has its own rich history for its people to be proud of. I am proud to be a Kannadiga," he tweeted.

However, Minister for Higher Education Dr C N Ashwath Narayan said the top priority in the state is for Kannada, but it is necessary to treat "Hindi as the communicative language at the national level".

On Wednesday, actors Ajay Devgn and Sudeep had duelled in twitterspace, with Devgn saying, "Hindi was, is, and will always be our mother tongue and national language", in reaction to Sudeep's comment that Hindi is not the national language.

Sandalwood stands with Sudeep

Many Kannada actors, directors and others from Sandalwood have come forward to defend Sudeep. Actor-turned-politician Ramya said Hindi is not the national language. "Ajay Devgan, your ignorance is baffling and it's great that films like KGF, Pushpa and RRR have done so well in the Hindi belt -- art has no language barrier. Please enjoy our films as much as we enjoy yours," she said. Actor Ninasam Satish tweeted "for the past many years, your (Hindi) cinema is making money in Karnataka and just now Kannada cinema has entered there. Give respect to our language. Hindi was never our National language and we are with you Sudeep".

Dream big, become entrepreneurs: Nirani to youths

K SHIVA KUMAR @ Mysuru

INDUSTRIES Minister Murugesh Nirani said that Karnataka and Bengaluru are the front runners in attracting Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) and urged young talents to become entrepreneurs rather than looking for government jobs.

Speaking after the inauguration of "Be an Entrepreneur - become an employer" workshop, he said that Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai have come up with many programmes to encourage youngsters to set up industries. Karnataka has 288 Research and Development Units, the highest in the world, he said, adding that Karnataka is an investor-friendly state, attracting 48 per cent FDI and the state is leading in IT-BT, defence, gems exports. He said that the semiconductor policy will generate 1 lakh jobs.

Lauding Modi for encouraging bio-diesel production, he said that Centre is spending Rs 1 lakh on each candidate per year to work in R&D units.

FKCCI initiative for budding entrepreneurs

FKCCI has received applications from 625 teams from 185 institutions for its initiative to select and enc-ourage good startup ideas from aspiring entrepreneurs from Karnataka and other southern states. FKCCI pres-ident IS Prasad said while the top 20 teams will get Rs 1 lakh each as a cash prize, they will also get seed mon-ey from Udan New Horizon of Engineering Colle Benga-luru and Atal Incubation Center, NITTE Institute.

HITCHHIKING THE WAY

Kodagu youth travels penniless across Karnataka

PRAJNA GR @ Madikeri

A HITCHHIKER from Kodagu has gained popularity for his unique travel approach. An ambitious explorer, he brings to the fore the hospitality of Indian families and the welcoming nature of strangers. Travel videos uploaded on his YouTube channel are gaining appreciation and he dreams to travel the country penniless.

"The passion for travelling almost always comes with a baggage of huge monetary requirements. But I wanted to check if I can travel without money. My first hitchhiking trip was to Sringeri, where strangers dropped me to my destination without demanding money," shared Vinay Kumar, a travel enthusiast who works as a HR recruiter. An M.Com graduate, Vinay recently completed his studies and is currently working from home in Madikeri. During the weekends, he explored a few places and that is when his unique travel story took shape.

From his home in Madikeri, Vinay hitchhiked a ride on a Saturday morning and reached the highway. He requested for free rides from strangers on bikes, truck, car, taxi and electric bike and reached Sringeri while taking several pit stops.

"I left Madikeri on Saturday and returned home on Sunday. Even on my return, I hitchhiked rides," he shared. Apart from free commute, Vinay also succeeded in getting free breakfast and lunch. The videos of his interactions with locals and families show the hospitality and welcoming nature of citizens.

STALIN ATTACKS PM ON FUEL PRICE CLAIMS

Taunts Union govt for increasing prices after winning polls, says centre did not pass on surplus revenue to states

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Chennai

CHIEF Minister MK Stalin and Finance Minister Palanivel Thiaga Rajan on Thursday responded to the claims and charges made by Prime Minister Narendra Modi on the fuel price issue.

Rarely, does such a discussion take place in the State Assembly about the views expressed by the Prime Minister. The Chief Minister and the Finance Minister strongly rebut the views expressed by the Prime Minister.

Later, expressing his views through tweets on the discussion in the State Assembly, the Chief Minister said, unlike the Union BJP Govt which has the habit of increasing the fuel price immediately after elections get over, the DMK Govt in TN reduced Petrol price after winning the elections.

"The politically aware people of TN are not oblivious to these simple facts and it's only a matter of time before the rest of India sees through the bogus claims of the BJP govt," he added. "Having made hay out of the decline of crude oil prices and devoured Rs.26 lakh crore from fuel prices in the last eight years, to blame the opposition ruled States for the steep hike in fuel prices is akin to trying to cover a pumpkin in a handful of rice," Chief Minister said in another tweet.

The Chief Minister criticised the contention of the Prime Minister that the prices of petrol and diesel could not be brought down just because certain States had failed to reduce the VAT.

Stalin charged that since 2014, the Union Government did not pass on the surplus revenue accrued due to the slash in crude oil price while taking the entire revenue to its exchequer.

Andhra CM Jagan to meet Modi in New Delhi today

VIJAYAWADA : Chief Minister YS Jagan Mohan Reddy is scheduled to meet Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Friday during his two-day visit to New Delhi. The meeting assumes significance in the wake of PM Modi on Wednesday asking the State governments, including Andhra Pradesh, to reduce Value Added Tax (VAT) on petrol and diesel to lessen the burden on people. Jagan is likely to appraise the Prime Minister about the financial situation of the AP.

Woman killed for resisting sexual assault in AP village

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Guntur

A 34-year-old home-alone mother of two was murdered for resisting an allegedly sexual assault at Thummapadi in Duggirala mandal here on Wednesday, police said after recording the arrest of two men on Thursday.

The woman's relatives alleged that she was gang-raped by three people. Police said she was not sexually assaulted and only two persons were involved in the crime.

The incident triggered a political furore with the opposition parties accusing the government of failing to protect women. Thummapadi witnessed tense moments when TDP leader Nara Lokesh visited the village on Thursday and some people, reportedly YSRC supporters, pelted stones at their rival leaders.

District police superintendent K Arif Hafeez said the two accused, K Venkata Sai Satish and M Siva Satya Sriram visited the woman on Wednesday. While Sriram waited outside, Satish spent some time with her, and returned around 2 pm. The woman was reportedly close to Satish, the second accused.

"His friend Sairam later went inside and made sexual advances towards her. As the woman resisted, he strangled her with a saree. The men then fled the scene with her mobile phone," the officer added.

Police said the woman's husband had been away in Tirupati on business since February. Married for 15 years, the couple sold water pipes used in farms for a living.

Four pillars of democracy in greedy hands: Justice Hegde

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Mangaluru

FORMER SC Judge and retired Lokayukta N Santhosh Hegde on Thursday cautioned that if one goes by religion and language, the country will be destroyed and unfortunately, the four pillars of democracy - Legislature, Executive, Judiciary and the Media - are in the hands of greedy people.

Inaugurating 'Samvidhana Odu' (Read Constitution), a one day seminar organized at Nitte University in Deralakatte, Justice Hegde said that every citizen needs to study the Constitution to build a healthy society.

"A society that worships the the powerful has been created. We are hearing of a series of scams throughout the country such as PSI recruitment scam, corruption in smart city works etc. There are ample opportunities to question in our legal system but the verdict mostly gets delayed. Earlier, people never visited a person who has been to jail but now the accused are being welcomed in a grand manner. We need to study the Constitution and the youth should work for the good future of this country," he said.

Chennai civic body faces heat as landfill burns

AS the burning Perungudi landfill continued to spew out toxic fumes for a second day, the Chennai Corporation is mustering resources to douse the fire, which is now raging on eight acres. At the same time, pressure is mounting on the civic body to remove the landfill, located inside the Pallikaranai marshland, or stop the daily dumping of waste there.

Fire rages for the second day at Perungudi landfill in Chennai on Thursday | EXPRESS

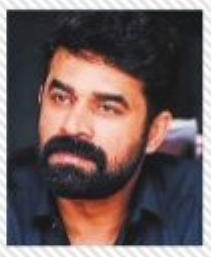
The blanket of thick smoke seen over Velachery on Thursday afternoon was enough guess what the residents are going through. S Venkatesh, a resident of Ram Nagar, said the smoke is nauseating. Corporation Commissioner Gagandeep Singh Bedi said the fire would be contained within the site and won't affect nearby areas.

A special team, comprising four chief engineers and two deputy commissioners, has been formed to extinguish the fire. The corporation has cordoned off the burning site with trench. With high tension lines passing overhead, any accidental spraying of water on them will worsen the situation.

After inspecting the site, Municipal Administration Minister KN Nehru said 300 staff from the Chennai Metro Water Supply and Sewerage Board and fire and rescue services are working from Wednesday afternoon to douse the fire.

"To prevent any health issues to residents, medical camps have been set up in Velachery, Madipakkam, Perungudi, and Taramani," he said. Twelve fire tenders, two skylift engines, and 120 tankers from Chennai metro water have been deployed to the spot.

Lookout notice for Vijay Babu after police collect evidence against him in rape case



Kochi: After collecting evidence that prima facie concur with allegations of rape and sexual assault raised by the victim against actor-producer Vijay Babu, police have issued a lookout notice for him as a precursor to impound his passport if he hasn't left the country and also alert Interpol about the accused if he is abroad. Police have already contacted the Bureau of Emmigration (BoE) to verify whether he has left the country following unconfirmed reports that he is holed up somewhere in Dubai. Babu went absconding after police registered rape and sexual assault case based on a complaint filed by the young actor alleging that he repeatedly sexually abused her promising roles in his film projects. Kochi City Police Commissioner Nagaraju Chakilam said that they have collected evidence from the flat of Babu at Panampilly Nagar and from the hotel rooms where the crime was allegedly committed.

Woman suffers severe acid burns on chest, head

"SHE immediately called her father and got admitted to a nearby private hospital," the officer added.

The woman sustained severe burns on her chest, head and back. Though out of danger, she is under observation for a week.In her police statement, she stated that Nagesh had been harassing her for seven years. When she turned down his proposal, he had threatened her, saying he would ensure that she couldn't marry anyone else either. The victim had complained to Nagesh's brother, and he had assured her he would speak to him.

Her father Rajanna also gave his statement to the police. Her family, which was preparing for her sister's wedding on May 8, is in shock.

Kamakshipalya police are on the lookout for the accused.

A separate offence

Senior advocate M S Shyamsundar told TNIE that until 2013, an acid attack was not recognised as a separate offence and was either registered under Indian Penal Code (IPC) 307 (attempt to murder) or IPC 326 (causing grievous hurt by dangerous means). Due to the amended Criminal Law of 2013, Section 326A (voluntarily causing grievous hurt by use of acid) and 326B (voluntarily throwing or attempting to throw acid) were inserted in the IPC to provide punishment for acid attack and attempted acid attack.

Unfair trade practice, says consumer panel

THE Commission comprising president HR Srinivas and members YS Thammanna and SM Sharavathi said that though the complainant has corresponded with Airtel and issued a legal notice, it remained adamant and did not reply to the complainant's demand. The acceptance of Rs 20 has been admitted by the firm where it is a specific contention in the e-mail correspondences that there is no validity of the Rs 20 recharge. It is the duty of the firm to refund Rs 20 but the same has not been done, the Commission said, hence, "there is deficiency in service to that extent and also unfair trade practice".

WITH the recent signing of the Australia-India Economic Cooperation and Trade Agreement (AI-ECTA) and launch of the India Economic Strategy (IES) updation to 2035, Higher Education, IT/BT and Skill Development Minister Dr C N Ashwath Narayan said the National Education Policy is vital in helping economic expansion.

Speaking at an event -- 'An Update to the India Economic Strategy to 2035', organised by the Australian Trade and Investment Commission (Austrade) -- he said the NEP has a step towards expanding the economy, especially with the correction and strengthening of institutions in the country. "Providing quality higher education allows for us to both compete with the world and to help expand our economy," he said on Thursday.

"Education collaboration had long been a flagship sector in Australia-Karnataka relations, with close research and teaching relationships existing between high-quality institutions on both sides. Joint research centres and Ph.D programs provide hothouse conditions for innovative work on shared research problems, ones that are pressing for both India and Australia," said Dr Monica Kennedy, Australian Trade and Investment Commissioner.

The IES updation was launched on March 22.

Woman wins battle against Paytm for damaged camera

YATHIRAJU @Bengaluru

DRAGGING Paytm to the Consumer Commission for delivering a used camera instead of a new one, and failing to replace it or refund money, a city resident succeeded in getting compensation without the help of legal experts.

She filed a complaint against Paytm Mall, an online portal of Paytm. Allowing partly the complaint filed by Asha Jangamareddy (38) from Vijayanagar, the Bengaluru Urban Second Additional District Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission directed Paytm to refund Rs 5,149 towards cost of the camera, with interest of 10% per annum, Rs 10,000 towards compensation and Rs 5,000 as litigation expenses.

Noting that Paytm indulged in unfair trade practice and deficiency in rendering service, the Commission comprising president M Shobha, members B Devaraju and V Anuradha passed the order against Paytm for causing mental trauma and agony to the complainant by supplying a damaged camera, and defrauding her by failing to refund money, though she waited for several weeks, and even corresponded via e-mail, messages and phone calls.

The Commission noted that Paytm is liable for deficiency in service in the matter of return of the product or refund. Though Paytm is not a manufacturer, it is a facilitator under the online platform which owns and operates the website. The complainant had trusted Paytm, the Commission observed.

Asha had purchased the camera in July 2020, placing its trust in Paytm Mall. When it was delivered, she was shocked to notice that it was old and used, with multiple scratches on the screen and a rusted USB cable. Immediately, she requested Paytm to initiate a return for the order but it was refused, with the claim that the camera was perfect and new. It also fraudulently closed all complaints without resolving them, she alleged.

Denying the allegations, Paytm claimed that it is not responsible to resolve grievances of the complainant, as it is a company which facilitates sellers to display their good. It also claimed that it had arranged pick up of the camera from the complainant by the merchant, but the door of the complainant was locked. However, the complainant denied that her door was locked.

Three guards held, ₹1.43 cr recovered

Bengaluru: The Hulimavu police have arrested three security guards for committing theft at a flat and had decamped with valuables worth ` 1.43 crore. The accused have been identified as Babloo (34), Bola (26), and Sridhar (58), all natives of Bihar. The incident took place at Roshan Platinum apartments on Sree Saibaba Temple Road in Arakere. Tajmul Basha, a retired civil engineer and owner of the flat, had moved to the new flat on April 21. The family had travelled to Hyderabad on April 24. When they returned on Wednesday, they found that someone had gained entry to the flat. Immediately, he filed a police complaint. The police have recovered 1.3 kgs of gold, 116 grams of diamond jewels, and other valuables, totally worth Rs. 1.25 crore.

2 govt school students injured as ceiling plaster falls

Kurnool: Two students of a government-run Urdu primary school were injured after portions of a ceiling plastering of a classroom collapsed on them, at Gonegandla in Kurnool district on Thursday. The incident took place when there was a class going on, and the two class 2 students, S Safhan and S Md Areef, were taken to a local hospital where the doctors performed stitches on them. No child was severely hurt as all of them were immediately evacuated from the room. Taking a serious note of the incident, the district administration has ordered a probe as the school, in a dilapidated condition, was not selected for renovation under the Mana Badi Nadu Nedu scheme despite it sending proposals for repairs. Mandal educational officer (MEO) K Vinod Kumar said the Mandal Parisath Primary Urdu School, built 15-20 years ago, has a total student strength of 66. "As there was not much change in the school strength, no new classrooms were sanctioned, which may have affected its selection for renovation,"he added.

INDIAN EXPRESS IS NOT AN INDUSTRY. IT IS A MISSION.

— Ramnath Goenka

MAKE KERALA FILM INDUSTRY SAFE FOR WOMEN

Kerala's entertainment industry is gripped by a fresh wave of #MeToo allegations. The latest is the rape case against producer-actor Vijay Babu. A young actor has accused him of brutal rape and assault. The producer, who has gone absconding, came live on his social media page and revealed the identity of the complainant, thus sounding a dog-whistle for his fans. In January this year, comedian Srikanth Vettiyar was booked for rape following a woman's complaint.

While such cases continue to be reported, the trial in the high-profile actor assault case of 2017 in which actor-producer Dileep is a key accused has dragged on. The fact that the complainant in this case has to make frequent interventions to ensure that the probe is not derailed exposes the thorny path of justice that survivors are made to take. Recently, taking note of unhealthy practices in the Malayalam film industry, the Kerala High Court directed all film production houses to constitute internal complaints committees under the POSH Act to deal with sexual harassment of women.

What these repeated incidents suggest is that the industry is yet to ensure a healthy atmosphere for women. In this context, the state government's silence on the Justice Hema Commission report needs to be questioned. The commission, formed in the wake of the 2017 assault, studied gender discrimination in the film industry. Its report submitted in 2019 has been kept under wraps on the pretext that it contains details that might be dangerous to the life and career of those who testified. As usual, the towering figures of Mollywood are silent. An internal correction within the industry appears remote despite organisations like AMMA and FEFKA making tall promises in the HC. The government can no longer remain a mute spectator to what's happening in the industry. It's duty-bound to ensure a free and fair working environment for all. It must implement at least the key recommendation of the Hema Commission—that is to form a tribunal with regulatory powers. The industry, on its part, should lose no time in putting in place measures to end the exploitation of and discrimination against women.

KCR'S PLANS AND OPPOSITION UNITY

Telangana Chief Minister K Chandrashekar Rao is dreaming big. He wants to set an economic and political agenda for the entire nation. At the TRS plenary on Wednesday in Hyderabad, he changed his tack saying that he is not interested in "tents or fronts" but was keen on empowering people. He argued that he couldn't care less about who would become the next prime minister or how the BJP could be brought down and that he only wanted to empower people. He is calling a conference of economists of international repute for solutions to the country's ills followed by a conclave of retired IAS officers to help him fit them into a model that suits India.

The chief minister has several ideas up his sleeve for taking the nation on the fast track to development. Even if the people are convinced, they should have a way to express their opinions, and to facilitate this, he appears to be thinking about floating a national party, Bharat Rashtra Samiti, which is indicative of his intention to lead the opposition parties by virtue of being the first to author an alternative agenda for the nation.

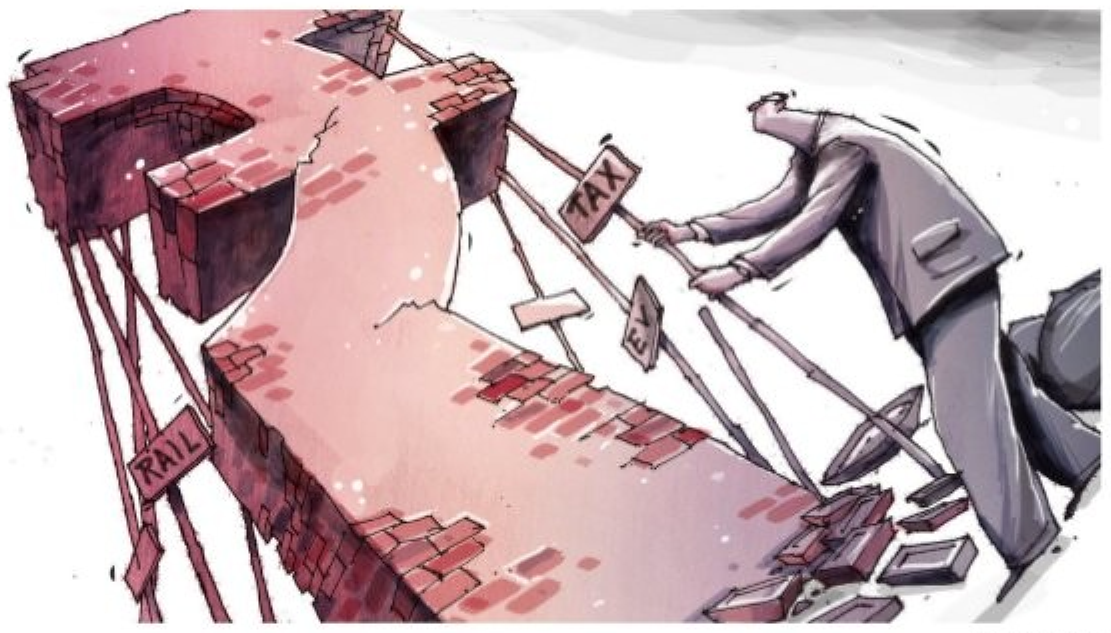
For the moment, he does not want to speak about Opposition unity as Mamata Banerjee, M K Stalin, Sharad Pawar and other leaders of their ilk are working in consort with the Congress with which he cannot be friendly at least till the next Assembly elections in 2023. This is because the presence of both the BJP and the Congress in the electoral fray would be advantageous to him. Then he may join hands with the Congress to campaign against the BJP and its agenda. The Assembly elections later next year will be an important moment for his plan. But emerging unscathed there is only the first step. The Lok Sabha elections will be the litmus test for him in taking his national agenda forward.

India's neighbours are falling like ninepins. With inflation being a major factor, danger is lurking around the corner. What steps should the government take?

ECONOMY IN PERIL, IT'S TIME TO BITE THE BULLET

M R SIVARAMAN IAS (RETD.)

Former Revenue Secretary, Government of India



SOUMYADIP SINHA

The Modi government is smug with the expectation of an 8% growth in 2022–23. However, the environment around us is not currently conducive to this. India's neighbours, with the exception of Bhutan and Bangladesh, are falling like ninepins with their economic chaos imposing additional costs on our nation.

With inflation being a major factor, danger is lurking in all corners for the country. Foreign reserves have sharply declined from 17 months imports to hardly 12 months and a further fall will follow a hike in Fed rates. Retail inflation at 6.75% is not going to decrease when the full transmission effect of steep rise in fuel costs are taken into account. It will spiral up as seen in the past and currently witnessed in the US, with additional financial costs to the government.

With the noose tightening around the neck of Russia, the dwindling supplies of oil and spares on which we are dependent is pushing us into Chinese hands as can be seen from the steep rise in imports from Beijing.

Our household savings, crucial for investment and now at a little more than 30% of GDP, have to improve to a level of 36% for the economy to grow at 8%.

The state of employment generation has not improved and large industry has shown a decline likely due to the increasing use of AI and robotics. Labour participation rate is down to 40% in 2021.

Here are some problems that have not yet attracted national attention: 1) The rapid introduction of electric vehicles will cause a sharp decline in employment in the automobile sector and hundreds of thousands could be jobless in the next few years. Increasing pollution will force India to shut down thermal power plants and coal mines leading to mass unemployment. To tackle this, the government has to work on a mission mode with the industry and all stakeholders so that social unrest is prevented.

2) Agriculture labour is 144 million strong and predominantly low paid. The government must enable a smooth transition of these workers into more productive and better-paying jobs to bring down the proportion of 42% population dependent on agriculture to 25% in the next five-seven years. District-wise planning would be necessary and this would be of lasting benefit and more enduring than distributing ₹6,000 per farmer as no one amongst the 144 million agricultural labourers is benefitted by this.

3) The disparity amongst states in India is worrisome with Bihar having a meagre per capita income of ₹50,733 as against the ₹5.2 lakh of Sikkim. Fourteen states in India have a per capita income above $3,000 and 14 below $2,000. Though the disparity is growing day by day, no Economic Survey has dealt with this incongruity yet. We cannot afford this as it will lead to an increase in migration and attendant social and economic tensions. Dispensations by the Finance Commissions have not made any impact indicating the lack of governance in these states. Ministers should be more worried about this than issues of language and religion that provoke unrests.

4) The inequality in incomes that gives rise to the birth of Maoist-type organisations have to be addressed by reducing inequality rather than allowing it to increase sharply as happening in India.

5) In a country with diverse culture, language and religion, states will continue to assert their identity whichever party may be in power. But the Central government seems to ignore even the genuine feelings of states when introducing major reforms in education or agriculture that affect everyone. Political unrest and dissatisfaction will not help in accelerating growth.

> The state of employment generation has not improved. Labour participation rate is down to 40% in 2021 ... The Centre should set up commissions with full involvement of states and businesses to tackle mass unemployment arising out of transformational changes in industry

So I would like to propose the following: 1) Government should levy a wealth tax of 3% on all shareholdings by individuals and organisations above ₹25 crore share value being taken at the average traded price in the previous year. The tax should be extended to all properties owned and those paying a property tax in excess of ₹50,000 per annum. This should net around ₹1 lakh crore to be shared by the Centre and states equally. The amount should be used only for transitioning agriculture labour to more productive occupations, improving the quality and quantity of vocational education, and on improving health facilities in rural areas. The GoI should target economic improvement in poor states to reduce the gap in incomes.

2) The Central government should set up commissions with full involvement of states and businesses to tackle mass unemployment arising out of transformational changes in industry and in the power sector, particularly due to electric vehicles replacing internal combustion engine ones and coal plants shutting down with the consequent closure of coal mines.

3) The Railways should be directed to use their land for generating solar power to meet their requirement of power within three years.

4) Targeted completion of EV charging stations across all national and state highways.

5) Central and state governments should immediately introduce measures to cut down their consumption of fossil fuels by at least 10%, setting an example for others.

6) States and the Centre should fill up all vacant posts.

7) Last but not the least, the involvement of states in decision-making on national issues is a must and should be achieved by setting up national councils of state ministers on the pattern of GST (the author as revenue secretary convened the first meeting of the state finance ministers when Dr Manmohan Singh was the finance minister, which has become the GST council now) for agriculture, industry and exports, health and education as inevitably many states will be under regional parties and should not be allowed to be at loggerheads with the Centre on crucial national issues.

As the saying goes, "Never leave time till tomorrow which you can do today." Time and tide wait for no man and the Modi government has to act fast before getting into an election mode.

THE SCULPTURAL MARVELS OF MP'S GYARASPUR

SAURABH SAXENA

Founder of Puratattva, a documentation of heritage sites

The landscape of India is dotted with many small towns and villages of great heritage value. However, their tourist potential is not adequately tapped. Cut off from the main tourist circuits, these remote places are rarely visited. Gyaraspur in Vidisha district of Madhya Pradesh is one such small town.

The place is named after gyaras, the eleventh day (Ekadashi) of the Hindu calendar month. As per a legend, the king of Vidisha practised strict Ekadashi-vrata and no one in his household took any food on that day. Once his son-in-law, Sobhana, visited the palace on Ekadashi; however, no one offered him any food. Tired from his journey and not getting any food, Sobhana died. But he was fully recompensed in the next world. Two or three years later, a brahmana took a halt at Gyaraspur. He witnessed a miracle in the night and saw Sobhana descending onto Earth and holding his court. Since then, the place started being called Gyaraspur, signifying the day Sobhana attained elevation to heaven. To remember this event, a large fair is organised on each Ekadashi in the town.

Gyaraspur was an important cultural and trade centre during the Pratihara period (9th–10th century CE). The town patronised all the major religions of that time and has three Hindu temples, one Buddhist stupa, one Jain temple and remains of scattered antiquities. All these monuments are placed between the 9th and 10th century CE. The antiquity of the town was known since 1875 after Alexander Cunningham described it in his reports. All the surviving monuments were in different stages of preservation, and most required immediate attention. However, it was only in the 1930s that conservation activities were taken up by the archaeology department of the Gwalior State.

The Bajra Matha complex is the best-preserved temple in the town. It is a unique triple-shrine temple consisting of three cells placed side by side in a row. The central shrine is dedicated to Surya and the subsidiary ones are for Siva and Vishnu. Madhya Pradesh has many Surya temples of the Pratihara period; however, except Bajra Matha, the others are single-shrine temples. Bajra Matha represents the movement where Surya was given a prominent position in the Hindu pantheon.

The other two Hindu temples have survived partially. Known as Athkhamba (or eight pillars) by the locals is what is left of a large Siva temple. The temple consisted of a mandapa (hall), antarala (vestibule) and garbhagriha (sanctum). The lintels above the pillars are exquisitely carved and an image of Siva on the lalatabimba (crest) of the garbhagriha doorway suggests that the temple was dedicated to Him. Chaukhambha (or four pillars) is what remains of a majestic Vishnu temple. The temple was adorned with an entrance portal, Hindola Torana. It was assumed to be a stand for a swing (hindola). The surviving four pillars are the remains of a large mandapa that once stood here. Images of Vishnu avataras over the torana and other Vaishnava images over the lintels of the pillars suggest the affiliation of the temple.

(L) Hindola Torana (entrance portal) of what remains of the Vishnu temple in Gyaraspur in Vidisha district, MP; the Gyaraspur Lady, now housed in a Gwalior museum

The Mala Devi temple is unique and comes under the rare category of partial rock-cut and partial structural temples. It is built on a slope of a hill, with a picturesque view of the lush green fields below. The northern ridge of the hill had a natural cavern that got sanctified and a temple was later constructed keeping that natural cavern as its garbhagriha. The temple is dedicated to a Jain Tirthankara, probably Adinatha, as evident by the presence of Yakshi Chakreshvari on the lalatabimba. Another unique feature of the temple is the projecting balconies on its outer walls, making it one of the earliest temples with such a design.

A Buddhist stupa stands perched high on a hill near the town. It has lost its original structure due to remodelling during renovation. Four large Buddha images were placed at the cardinal points; these were removed to a local storeroom in Gyaraspur during restoration. The presence of this stupa suggests a Buddhist congregation at the site during the 9th–10th century CE.

The most impressive find from the town is the famous Gyaraspur Lady, now housed inside a secure vault of the Gujari Mahal Museum, Gwalior. The torso of the statue was collected from the debris of the Hindola Torana complex in 1933. A year later, the head of the statue was found. Both the pieces lay separately in the collection room for some time. A few years later while checking the collection, it was found that the head fit the torso—infusing life into the statue. Its real potential was realised later when Dr C Sivaramamurti categorised it as an unsurpassed piece of medieval art and a great masterpiece of all Indian art.

Situated on NH146 connecting Bhopal to Sagar, Gyaraspur awaits its transformation into a highway tourist attraction allowing travellers to get a glimpse of its architectural treasures.

Politics over tragedy

It is shocking that 11 people died of electrocution and many others were injured during a temple chariot procession near Thanjavur. Even before the dead bodies were taken out for cremation, there was an unpleasant exchange between our elected representatives in the ongoing Assembly session and the opposition staged a walkout. Attempting to make political capital over such unfortunate incidents is not uncommon in Tamil Nadu politics irrespective of parties.

Problems with K-Rail

This is with reference to K-Rail: High speed travel or a rushed decision (Apr 28). The author, an eminent space scientist, has pointed out the problems with the proposed K-Rail. He has noted that the technology is five decades old and being abandoned by many countries. Further, it will lead to a mass dislocation of people in addition to the damage caused to the ecology. As correctly pointed out, the existing rail network is being upgraded and trains can be speeded up. Further, more superfast trains can be run with limited stops. All these are cost-effective and can be done without disturbing the people.

Trying to weaken Russia

Since Russia attacked Ukraine, there has been a considerable loss of lives along with unimaginable property destruction. Despite knowing well that Ukraine cannot win this war, NATO countries see this as an opportunity to weaken Russia. Hence they want the war to continue and support Kyiv with arms and ammunition. Better sense should prevail and Ukraine should make an attempt towards peace rather than push us all into a Third World War.

Movies shape young minds

This is with reference to Holistic action for TN edu malaise (Apr 26). The editorial has come at the right time as there have been a number of ugly incidents recently with school students abusing and threatening their teachers, both school boys and girls consuming alcohol in public transport while in uniform, etc. Movies and television serials are full of violence and crimes of all sorts, along with double entendres and vulgar dialogues. These play a crucial role in shaping young minds who are easily vulnerable and influenced by such scenes. The young students appear to take pride in such activities and even post the videos on social media. As pointed out, it is also the duty of parents of government school students to ensure the children have a holistic education. Besides, moral classes that were conducted in schools some decades ago should be revived and lessons on good behaviour, respect to elders and the need for ethics should be imparted at least once in a week.

Wondered why air ticket prices haven't come down? Aviation Turbine Fuel constitutes about 40% of the cost of airline operations.

Saket Gokhale @SaketGokhale

About 21% of airline revenues go to govt as taxes. No profits left after taxes. And THAT is why air ticket prices are going up. Stop fooling people.

Rahul Gandhi @RahulGandhi

High Fuel prices, coal shortage, oxygen shortage – blame states. 68% of all fuel taxes are taken by the centre. Yet, the PM abdicates responsibility.

Practicals and online classes, prime concern

Indian students who returned from China in 2020 shortly after the outbreak of the pandemic are still stranded at home. For many, online classes will not do any more because there are practical lessons for which they have to attend offline classes. The external affairs ministry is trying to send them back to China

Nearly 22K Indian students not getting permission to return

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

IT'S been two years since the outbreak of the Covid pandemic, which led to around 22,000 Indian students (mostly studying medicine) from China to head back home.

However, students from countries like Sri Lanka, Pakistan, Thailand and Solomon Islands are allowed to return to their universities in China recently. Yet, no such permission is available for Indian students. They are attending online classes, but it's time for practicals for many, for which they have to attend offline classes.

The India-China standoff began in 2020 with the Galwan clash in eastern Ladakh when 20 Indian soldiers were killed. Since then, things have not settled between the two nations.

"We hope China will take a non-discriminatory approach since it involves the future of young people,'' said External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar after a meeting with his Chinese counterpart Wang Yi in New Delhi last month. "We requested the Chinese minister to expedite the process of Indian students' return."

As a retaliatory step, valid visas that Chinese nationals had for visiting India have been scrapped. The Ministry of External Affairs, however, says visas have been revoked due to the Covid threat from China.

Amid this diplomatic standoff, students are a worried lot. "We can only wait for further notice,'' said Mominur Rahaman, a student of South West Medical University.

Such students are running a campaign on social media called 'Take us back to China.' "Let us request the authorities again. We can't be just simply waiting anymore. We must have an update on our return,'' tweeted a representative group, Indian Students in China.

China is preferred by Indian students who want to study medicine because the admission process in easy and fees are lower than in India.

Early to say if XD, XE are causing rise

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @New Delhi

INDIA has identified very few recombinant variants of the Covid-19 virus and there is no evidence yet that the Omicron XE recombination of BA.1 and BA.2, which is said to be 10 times more transmissible, is behind the spike in cases in the past fortnight.

"Recombinants are being identified, but that does not mean that recombination is leading to a spike," said Dr Samiran Panda, the head of Epidemiology and Infectious Diseases division at Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR).

"We should go by evidence and not create panic. We should not jump to a conclusion or make inferences if cases are rising," Panda told this daily when asked if INSACOG has discovered a few recombinant variants and could those be driving this present rise in cases in India, especially in states like Delhi, Uttar Pradesh, Haryana, Maharashtra, Mizoram and Kerala.

Though there have been claims of a few cases of XE in India — first from Mumbai, followed by one in Gujarat and a third in Kerala — the Union health ministry is yet to confirm them.

When cases started increasing in Delhi-NCR, mostly affecting schoolchildren, genomic sequencing found eight variants of Omicron, including BA.2.12 and BA.2.12.1. These two are closely related to BA.2, a version which has propelled surges across Europe and US.

Covid-19 genomic sequencing consortium INSACOG, in a bulletin released after three months, said, "Based on genome sequencing analysis, very few recombinant variants have been discovered in India." It, however, did not specify which recombinant had been discovered.

"So far, none showed increased transmission (locally or otherwise). Nor are they associated with severe disease or hospitalisation. Incidents of suspected recombinants and the possible public health relevance are being closely monitored," it said. The bulletin said recombinant variants XD and XE are closely monitored worldwide.

Panda said the spike is reported from some districts and the infection is not severe. He added the best way is to follow Covid-appropriate behaviour.

Other vaccine-preventable diseases getting overlooked

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

PANDEMIC-RELATED disruptions, increasing access inequalities and diversion of resources from routine immunisation are leaving too many children without protection against measles, acute viral respiratory illness and other vaccine-preventable diseases, said WHO and UNICEF in a joint warning.

The two UN agencies said there is "a worrying sign of heightened risk for the spread of vaccine-preventable diseases that could trigger larger outbreaks, particularly of measles, affecting millions of children in 2022."

Indian officials said they have started working on a mission mode bridge the gap in the routine immunisation programme, which suffered significantly way due to the pandemic.

Officials said they have identified over 4 lakh children and nearly 11 lakh pregnant women, who needed the vaccines or were overdue for regular immunisation and left out due to the pandemic. India has launched the fourth round of its Intensified Mission Indradhanush 4.0 in 33 states and UTs to reach its annual target of vaccinating 2.9 crore pregnant women and 2.7 crore children.

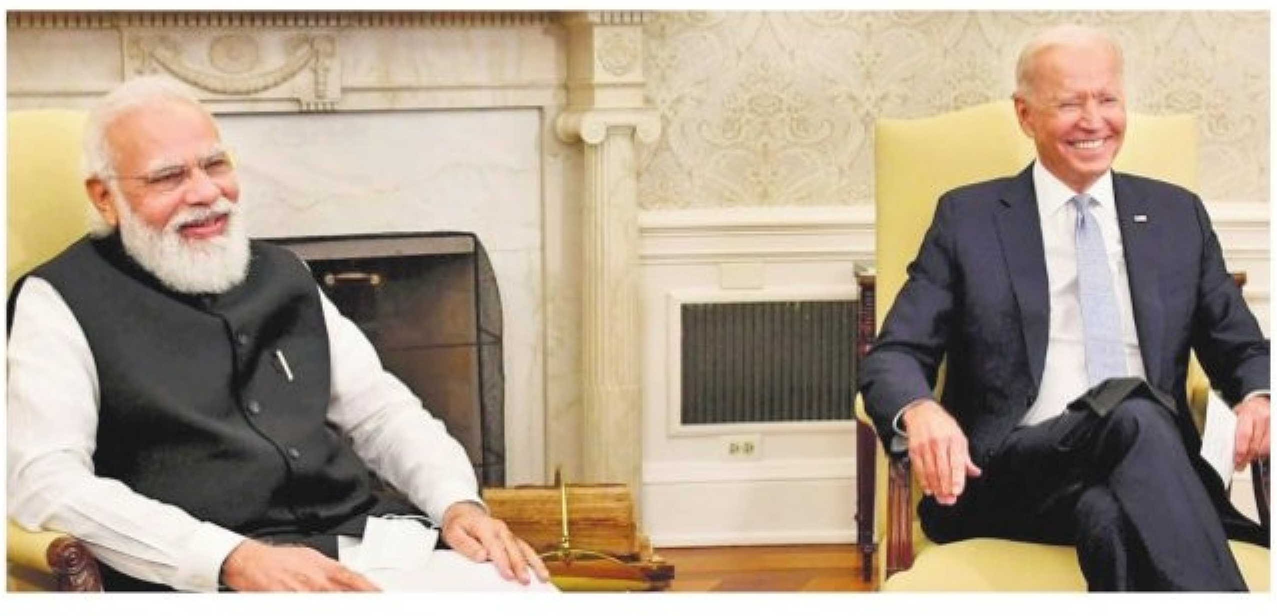
Order reserved on Centre-AAP case

The Supreme Court on Thursday reserved its order on reference to a constitutional bench to decide the dispute between the Union government and Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) over the control of the administrative services in Delhi. The Centre has asked for the constitution of a five-member bench, to which AAP has raised an objection. Presently, a three-judge bench headed by Chief Justice NV Ramana is hearing the case. The top court said the matter will be heard before its summer vacation

Shourie plea added to list

The Supreme Court on Thursday agreed to list former Union Minister for Communication and Information Technology, Arun Shourie's petition challenging the constitutional validity of the section 124-A (sedition) of the Indian Penal Code on May 5. Advocate Prashant Bhushan mentioned the matter before the top court and said that he had filed the plea in July 2021 but it hasn't been listed yet. The bench headed by Chief Justice of India NV Ramana tagged the case with other pleas to be heard on May 5.



PM Modi to meet President Biden at Quad Summit in Tokyo on May 24

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi and US President Joe Biden are expected to meet on May 24 during the Quad Summit in Tokyo. The White House has issued a statement saying that President Biden will also travel to South Korea before he heads for Japan.

"This trip will advance the Biden-Harris administration's rock-solid commitment to free and open Indo-Pacific,'' White House Press Secretary Jen Psaki said on Thursday.

Modi and Biden are likely to discuss opportunities to strengthen security relationships, enhance economic ties and expand close cooperation to deliver practical results.

"In Tokyo, President Biden will meet the leaders of the Quad grouping of Australia, Japan, India. We look forward to having further details of this trip soon,'' Psaki added.

Biden had spoken about his in-person meeting with Modi when he interacted with him virtually in a prelude to the 2+2 meeting, for which External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar and Defence Minister Rajnath Singh had travelled to Washington DC.

Even though the Ukraine issue is likely to be discussed during the Quad Summit, India has made its position clear and the Quad leaders have accepted its stand. Indo-Pacific, trade ties and China's aggression are likely to be discussed during the meeting.

US Secretary of State Tony Blinken has said his country is making an effort to strengthen ties with India. "Now, we are investing in that effort. I think there is a growing strategic convergence between the United States and India," he said.

"I think this partnership has the potential to be one of the most important and foundational partnerships that we have going forward over the next decades," he said.

Blinken added that Biden has spent a lot of time engaging with Modi and India's leadership. "We have energised the Quad that brings India together with Australia and Japan and us. This has been a very important vehicle for strengthening our collaboration."

CPI(M) opposes Centre's LIC policy, says process should be stalled soon

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE Communist Party of India (Marxist) on Thursday said it firmly opposes the manner in which the Central government has gone about opening the initial public offering (IPO) of Life Insurance Corporation (LIC).

It demanded that the process should be halted. A statement from the party said this opening of IPO is a step towards the destruction of the public character of the LIC and handing over priceless financial assets largely owned by nearly 29 crore policy holders.

It further stated that the government wants to change the character of the financial institution from a trust of policy holders to a profit-maximising company owned by shareholders.

"The sale of shares of LIC, in effect, the sale of future income flows to policy holders. They have not been consulted or informed of the implications of the IPO holders," it said.

It also said that in principle, the party is opposing the IPO of an institution whose assets are largely owned by crores of policy holders. "Our politburo urges for the widest possible opposition to the IPO and expresses solidarity with the struggle of the employees and policyholders and demands that the government halt this process."

Ban on Ramzan prayers in Srinagar mosque draws flak

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

AUTHORITIES in Kashmir UT have disallowed 'Shab-e-Qadr' (nightlong prayers) and 'Jumat-ul-Vida' (last Friday of Ramzan) congregational prayers at Jamia Masjid in Srinagar, drawing criticism from mainstream parties and religious groups.

A spokesman for Anjuman Auqaf Jamia Masjid, which runs the affairs of the shrine, said police and administration officials headed by a magistrate visited the premises on Wednesday evening and conveyed to the Auqaf members that authorities had decided not to allow Jumat-ul-Vida prayers as well Shab-e-Qadr (27th night of Ramzan) prayers at Jamia Masjid. Muslims offered nightlong prayers in mosques and shrines on the occasion of Shab-e-Qadr.

Anjuman Auqaf Jamia denounced the government decision, saying it amounted to interference in the religious matters of the people.

"The government says the situation is normal in Kashmir. Then why have they disallowed these prayers in Jamia Masjid?" asked former CM and National Conference leader Omar Abdullah.

The Gupkar Alliance termed the decision as deporable and unacceptable and urged the government to reconsider it.

Two giants show interest in biogas project in UP

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

WITH the Uttar Pradesh government contemplating at least one Compressed Bio Gas plant (CBG) in each of the 75 districts as part of its bid to find a solution to the problem of stray cattle, Indian Oil Corporation Limited (IOC) and Adani Total Gas (ATG) have shown interest in joining the state government in its endeavour.

According to a senior official, the CBG plants will provide a boost to rural economy by creating jobs. Representatives of the two firms made presentations to officials of the Animal Husbandry department at a meeting chaired by Chief Secretary DS Mishra on Tuesday. Sources claimed both firms proposed to set up plants to produce bio gas from cattle dung and crop residue. However, the state government is yet to approve the proposal.

As per sources, both IOC and ATG representatives proposed to buy cattle dung and crop residue from farmers to produce CBG in the plants that may be set up near stray cattle centres. Sources also claimed that the CBG plants would make better use of agricultural waste, cattle dung and municipal solid waste, provide additional revenue source to farmers and create job opportunities in rural areas apart from making affordable CBG available to rural consumers for domestic use.

Stray cattle was a big issue raised not only by the opposition but also by farmers before the recently-concluded assembly elections in UP. Common refrain was, these stray animals destroy crops and casuse massive losses.

Time up, government serves eviction notice on helpless artistes

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

THE Centre has asked eight eminent artistes to vacate their government accommodation, allotted years ago, by May 2. The government had cancelled the entitlement in 2014.

The move came a day after eviction proceedings began against 90-year-old Padma Shri awardee and Odissi dancer Guru Mayadhar Raut. As per a housing and urban affairs ministry official, of the 28 artistes, there are eight who are yet to move out. Like Rao, most of them are senior citizens. Some of them may not have other alternatives. All of them are renowned figures in their chosen fields.

A family member of Dhrupad singer Ustad F Wasifuddin Dagar said he was unable to understand this move. "Eminence of an artiste is not tenure-based. It is not the way one should be treated," he said.

Kamal Sabri, a sarangi player who was served the notice, said he had shifted to the house of Raut. "It was humiliating to see how Rautji's belongings were brought out and kept in the open. I tried to meet Minister Hardeep Singh Puri, but was not able to," said Sabri.

Abhay Sopori, son of Pandit Bhajan Sopori, said his father was not keeping well. "It's a government order and we cannot do much about it. We have requested the department to give us a few more days."

Up to 40 eminent artistes can be allotted accommodation under a special quota. This is done on the recommendation of the culture ministry if the earning of the artiste is under ₹20,000 a month. Earlier this month, Delhi High Court had directed classical artiste Rita Ganguly and others to vacate their residences by April-end. The court had refused to grant them time to retain the premises.

The eviction move is a part of a drive against "illegal occupants." MP Chirag Paswan was evicted from the bungalow allotted to his late father Ramvilas under the same drive, which saw a few BJP MPs vacate their government accommodations.

NEW DELHI STATION EARNS THE MOST, HOWRAH SECOND

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR
@ New Delhi

HOWRAH station handles around 600 passenger trains daily from 23 platforms, but earns less than New Delhi Railway Station, which tops the chart of stations when it comes to annual earnings.

New Delhi earns ₹2,400 crore by handling 480 passenger and express trains. Howrah is second with ₹1330 crore. A senior railway official explained that New Delhi earns more because it handles more long-distance and premier trains with higher fares. Howrah, in comparison, handles more local trains with cheaper fares.

Chennai Central comes third with annual earnings of ₹940 crore. Chennai Central handles nearly 350 express and 100 passenger trains from its 17 platforms.

Hazarat Nizammuddin in New Delhi is fourth with ₹900 crore. "Nizamuddin handled around 250 trains every day and has a daily passenger footfall of over 3.60 lakh," the railway official said.

Other stations in the top 10 are Chhatrappati Shivaji Terminus and Loknayak Terminus in Mumbai, Secunderbad, Ahmedabad, Bangalore's SBC Station and Pune.

The Secunderbad station in Hyderabad, which was built in 1874, ranks fifth. "The Secunderbad station earns ₹830 crore per year approximately. Roughly, there are 1.70 lakh passengers daily. It handles nearly 229 passenger trains from 10 platforms."

These figures show that number of trains or platforms do not necessarily determine which station earns more. It eventually comes down to the fare of the trains a station is handling. As Delhi shows, the higher the fare, better the earnings are.

Non-performers in MP cabinet may face axe

Buzz about cabinet reshuffle in BJP-ruled state; a few Scindia loyalist ministers could be divested of key portfolios

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bhopal

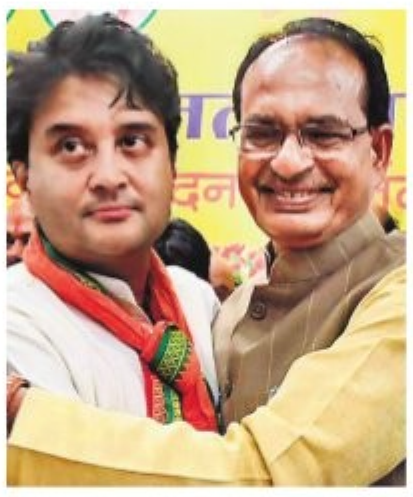
AMID senior BJP leaders from Madhya Pradesh arriving in Delhi on Thursday to meet the party's top brass, reportedly to discuss preparations for the 2023 Assembly polls in the state, there is a strong buzz of imminent cabinet reshuffle or expansion in the central Indian state. Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan and state party chief VD Sharma are among those who will meet top saffron party leaders in the national capital.

According to BJP sources who hold key positions in the state unit, a few non-performing ministers could be dropped from the cabinet while some other non-performers, particularly loyalists of Union civil aviation minister Jyotiraditya Scindia, could be divested of some of the portfolios they have been holding for long. New faces, especially tribals, OBC and upper caste leaders, could be inducted as part of the BJP's conscious efforts to reach out to every caste and section.

The non-performing ministers who might be dropped or divested of some crucial portfolios include tribal affairs minister Meena Singh, health and family welfare minister Dr Prabhuram Choudhary (one of the nine Scindia loyalists in the council of ministers), food and civil supplies minister Bisahulal Singh and environment minister HS Dang (two of the 22 former Congress MLAs who had brought down the 15-month-old Kamal Nath government in March 2020). Another Scindia loyalist minister Suresh Dhakad Rathkheda could also see his wings getting clipped.

Transport and revenue minister Govind Singh Rajput — another Scindia loyalist minister — could also lose one of his crucial portfolios.

New faces likely to be inducted as ministers are Sulochana Rawat, a former tribal leader of the Congress who retained her seat on BJP ticket; Indore-II MLA Ramesh Mendola, who is considered close to Kailash Vijayvargiya; and a Brahmin or Thakur from Vindhya region.



A section wary of Scindia loyalists' dominance

As per informed sources, there has been growing discomfort among a section of BJP over the dominance of Scindia loyalist ministers in the 25-month-old Shivraj Singh Chouhan 4.0 government. Knowing well that the West MP/Malwa Nimar and Vindhya regions are of critical importance for the party's prospects in the 2023 polls, the BJP could have in store something big for both these regions in the possible reshuffle

Nath steps down from Cong House leadership

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bhopal

MADHYA Pradesh Congress president Kamal Nath on Thursday stepped down as the Congress Legislature Party (CLP) leader in the state, where Assembly polls are due in November 2023.

Nath has been replaced by Dr Govind Singh, a loyalist of former CM Digvijaya Singh. Since Congress is the biggest opposition in the Assembly, the CLP leader will also hold the post of Leader of the Opposition.

The development came 23 days after a meeting of senior Congress leaders in the state, including Digvijaya Singh, unanimously decided to contest the 2023 polls in the state under Nath's leadership.

Speculations were rife since then about Nath, who is the party's state president, quitting as CLP leader and focusing on preparing the party for the 2023 Assembly polls.

Govind Singh, a seven-time MLA from Lahar in Bhind district, has held key portfolios in previous Congress governments in the state headed by both Digvijaya Singh and Kamal Nath.

A Kshatriya politician, Singh hails from the same Gwalior-Chambal region which is also the home turf of Union civil aviation minister Jyotiraditya Scindia.

The ruling BJP mocked the state Congress over the reshuffle. State BJP media convenor Lokendra Parashar tweeted: "Nath's wings have been clipped and Govind Singh's appointment as CLP leader means return of Digvijaya Singh's era in MP Congress."

J&K APPOINTS ACID ATTACK SURVIVOR AS GOVT COUNSEL

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

THE Jammu and Kashmir administration has appointed an acid attack survivor as the standing counsel for defending its cases in subordinate courts in Srinagar.

An official spokesman said the government on Thursday appointed Advocate Sehar Nazir, who is an acid attack survivor, as standing counsel for defending government cases before subordinate courts in the summer capital.

He termed it a "significant move towards ensuring empowerment of survivors of crime against women and providing equal opportunities of growth, rehabilitation and development to acid attack survivors and carving out a respectable place in a society.

Sehar was attacked with acid by two youths in Srinagar on December 11, 2014, when she was a law student in Srinagar.

She sustained critical burn injuries in the attack and underwent 26 surgeries. Besides losing vision in one eye, the attack left her hearing-impaired as one of her ears was also burnt. Sehar was airlifted to Chennai where she underwent multiple surgeries.

Both the culprits are behind the bars. The accused were charged under sections 120-B (criminal conspiracy) and 326-A (voluntarily causing grievous hurt by use of acid) of the Indian Penal Code.

The appointment of Sehar as standing counsel comes 10 days after the administration appointed visually challenged Jammu lawyer Suraj Singh as a government advocate.

JD-U plans crucial meet amid civil code debate

RAMASHANKAR @ Patna

THE national executive of the JD-U, the ruling NDA ally in Bihar, will meet in Patna next month amid growing signs of a rift with the BJP on issues such as the Uniform Civil Code (UCC). Senior JD-U leaders, including Chief Minister Nitish Kumar, will finalize the date of the meeting, said JD-U sources. The party would like an internal discussion on the UCC before Parliament takes it up as a bill in the monsoon session.

The UCC controversy flowed back in Bihar after BJP's Sushil Kumar Modi recently quoted Home Minister Amit Shah as saying that the controversial law would first be implemented in BJP-ruled states and that Bihar would be no exception.

The JD-U has warned its senior ally against raising the contentious matter. JD-U's parliamentary board chairman Upendra Kushwaha wants the BJP to keep off the issue "at this juncture" and instead focus on works of larger public interest.

Kushwaha has said the question of UCC implementation in Bihar does not arise until Nitish is at the helm. "I would like to assure you again that Nitish will continue to serve as chief minister till 2025," he added.

For BJP, the growing proximity between Nitish and Lalu Prasad's RJD is a matter of concern. Both Nitish and Tejashwi Prasad have met twice in a week at iftars. On Thursday, Tejashwi and his elder brother and Hasanpur MLA Tej Pratap attended the iftar hosted by the party's minority cell.

"There is more to such meetings than meets the eye. After all JD-U and RJD are rivals," said analyst Pramod Kumar. Earlier in the day, a minor row surfaced over posters at an iftar. These posters carried the pictures of JDU's minority cell state president Salim Parvez which were larger in size than Nitish Kumar's. State party chief Umesh Kushwaha has asked the functionaries to use pictures of Nitish only at such functions.

2 IFS officers suspended for felling Corbett trees

VINEET UPADHYAY @ Dehradun

THE Uttarakhand government has suspended two senior Indian Forest Service officials in connection with illegal tree-felling and construction in the Corbett Tiger Reserve. The director of the tiger reserve has also been shunted out.

"Our government is committed to a zero-tolerance policy towards violation of the law. Further action will be taken as per the law," said Subodh Uniyal, state forest minister.

JS Suhag, former chief wildlife warden who held the post of chief executive officer, and Kishan Chand, former divisional forest officer of Kalagarh Tiger Reserve, were suspended on Wednesday. CTR director Rahul (he goes by his first name) was removed from his post and attached to the office of principal chief conservator of forests, Dehradun.

In January this year, the Uttarakhand High Court had directed the state chief secretary and principal secretary (forests) to take action against the officials for illegal constructions and felling of trees in Pakhro and Morghati areas of the Corbett reserve. On April 17, the state government had served show cause notice to Rahul and asked him to reply within 15 days.

The High Court had taken suo moto cognisance of the illegal constructions and violation by the state forest department officials and issued notice to the state government in October 2021.

Earlier, a committee formed by the National Tiger Conservation Authority (NTCA) had found that forest department officials forged records in order to allow illegal construction and buildings. The NTCA had set up the committee following a petition by Supreme Court advocate and wildlife activist Gaurav Kumar Bansal, alleging illegal constructions.

'UP loudspeaker drive a tactic to divert attention'

NAMITA BAJPAI @Lucknow

MOCKING the Yogi Adityanath government's drive against loudspeakers, SP chief Akhilesh Yadav on Thursday termed it a "tactic to divert attention from real issues".

Taking a jibe on the Adityanath dispensation in the state, Akhilesh Yadav said while the state government had been boasting about removal of loudspeakers from places of worship, it should also spell out the number of jobs it created so far.

While participating in a programme at Nagla Moti villahe in his Karhal constituency, the SP chief said the removal of loudspeakers from places of worship was a way to digress from real issues.

"People are suffering from unemployment, farmers are not getting their wheat procured and prices are rising. These are the issues that affect the people of the state but the government is silent on them," said Yadav while talking to media persons.

"While the law enforcement authorities are busy removing loudspeakers, crime graph is rising in the state. If the police are engaged in removing loudspeakers, how will they enforce law and order. No one is getting employment in the state. Job opportunities are coming to an end and trade is dying," said the SP chief.

The state's law enforcement authorities have removed around 11,000 loudspeakers from places of worship and reduced volume of around 35,000 sound amplifiers across the state so far in compliance with an order issued by the state government recently.

Controversial slogans on BHU walls

Lucknow: After registering protest against Vice-Chancellor Sudhir Kumar Jain for participating in an Iftaar party on the campus on Wednesday, a group of Banaras Hindu University (BHU) students tried to disturb the peace by writing provocative slogans on the walls of the varsity on Thursday. The V-C had attended an Iftaar party thrown by students and teachers of Mahila Mahavidyalaya on Wednesday night. On Thursday morning, many caste-based slogans and those directed at Kashmir were seen painted on the walls of the campus. Based on the complaint by varsity officials, an FIR has been lodged against unidentified persons at Lanka police station. ENS

Minister's remark receives flak

Ranchi: Jharkhand minority welfare minister Hafizul Hasan has triggered a controversy over his remarks that "if minorities are disturbed, the majority community will also have to face the heat". Referring to the encroachment drive at Jahangirpuri in New Delhi, Hassan said if 20 per cent homes and businesses of our (Muslim) brothers are closed (demolished), 80 per cent houses of your (Hindus) will also be closed. "Everybody knows that whatever is happening against a particular community is harmful for everyone," said the minister. The state BJP, taking strong a note of the statement, demanded his resignation. "This is the real face of the Soren government," said state BJP chief Deepak Prakash. ENS

Raj Thackeray praises Yogi

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Mumbai

MNS chief Raj Thackeray on Thursday hailed UP Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath for removing loudspeakers from religious places.

Raj Thackeray has been demanding removal of loudspeakers from mosques in Maharashtra. "Unfortunately, we don't have any yogis in Maharashtra; what we have are bhogis. Here's hoping and praying good sense prevails," Thackeray tweeted.

Meanwhile, Maharashtra Deputy CM Ajit Pawar lashed out at Raj Thackeray and said the government won't allow any instigation of communal tension in the state. "What Yogi does is his prerogative. This is Maharashtra. Here, our attempt is to take everyone along in a harmonious manner. We do not discriminate people on the line of caste and religion."

CM visits Mantralaya but works from home

Chief Minister Uddhav Thackeray recently visited Mantralaya, the administrative headquarters of Maharashtra government, and promised that he would be a regular visitor soon. Thackeray continues to operate from his official residence, Varsha. Alliance partner NCP's chief Sharad Pawar backed Thackeray that it is a routine practice by chief ministers to function from their official residence. Pawar said there are separate secretaries available to handle the administrative issues from both Mantralaya as well as the CM's official residence. While Thackeray is attending most of the official meetings virtually, his deputy Ajit Pawar is often present at Mantralaya to chair meetings.

Mega rallies to counter 'law and order' narrative

Legally tenable or not, Centre imposing President's Rule on Maharashtra is at the centre chats in state's political circles. This buzz has got louder after the recent drama involving Lok Sabha MP Navneet Rana and her husband MLA Ravi Rana. Meanwhile, Maharashtra Navnirman Sena chief Raj Thackeray has been delivering speeches directing at the minority community. Many a political pundit sees these developments as a deliberate attempt to create law and order issue in the state, which could be used as an excuse to impose the President's Rule. To counter any such move, the ruling Maha Vikas Aghadi partners, barring Congress, have started mega public outreach programmes.

Ranas challenging Matoshree charges up Sena

Matoshree — the private residence of Uddhav Thackeray — has turned into a Shraddha Sthan, a respectable place to every Sena worker. This came to full display when the Rana couple challenged Thackeray by announcing to recite Hanuman Chalisa outside Matoshreee. The Sena cadre, which had been in a slumber, got charged up by the challenge, leading to them assembling outside the house of Ranas. Earlier, Narayan Rane and Chagan Bhujbal had tried to 'challenge' Matoshree. Rane had claimed he would defeat the Sena candidate in the seat where Matoshree is located, but in the end he lost the poll due to Sena's door-to-door campaign. Bhujpal, too, shared a similar fate.

Jignesh's bail order reserved

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Guwahati

THE district and sessions court of Barpeta in Assam on Thursday reserved its order till Friday on a fresh bail petition moved by arrested Gujarat MLA Jignesh Mevani.

The court of chief judicial magistrate in Barpeta had on April 26 sent Mevani to five-day police remand in connection with the second case. A woman police officer had lodged an FIR alleging the MLA had assaulted her and outraged her modesty.

Mevani was first arrested by the Assam police on April 20 from Gujarat based on an FIR lodged against him for an alleged controversial tweet against PM Modi.

Immediately after he was granted bail five days later on April 25 by the CJM court, Kokrajhar, the Barpeta police had re-arrested him based on the FIR filed by the woman police officer.

Covid on the rise again, Uttarakhand govt plans to bring back restrictions

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Dehradun

WITH Covid-19 cases rising again in Uttarakhand, the state goverment is planning to bring back restrictions including mandatory test report for those visiting the hill state. Meanwhile, Covid positivity rate in the state has crossed 1% for the first time in the last eight weeks

State health minister Dhan Singh Rawat said the government is closely watching the situation. "I appeal to people to strictly abide by Covid safety protocols," he said.

The state health department has issued instructions to increase Covid testing to check further spread of the pandemic.

On April 21, total active cases in the state were 44 which almost doubled in one week. On Thursday total number of active cases reached 89.

The positivity rate, which was 0.48% on April 21, reached 1.16% on Thursday.

A cabinet minister had tested positive earlier this week.

Anoop Nautiyal, of Social Development for Communities Foundation which has been collating and analysing Covid-19 data since March 15, 2020, said: "We appeal the government to take all possible steps in unleashing a massive, statewide campaign. This is a cause that calls for the active engagement of all government authorities, public representatives, faith leaders and residents of Uttarakhand."

Intense attacks indicate Russian offensive picking up pace in east

Moscow's forces attempt to surround Ukrainian troops in the second phase invasion

IRPIN

MOSCOW'S offensive in eastern Ukraine gathered momentum as several areas came under heavy shelling on Thursday, amid suspicions Russian President Vladimir Putin wants to score a major battlefield success in time for Victory Day, one of Russia's proudest holidays, on May 9.

Ukrainian authorities reported intense Russian fire in the Donbas — the eastern industrial heartland that the Kremlin is bent on capturing — and near Kharkiv, a northeastern city outside the Donbas that is seen as key to the offensive.

In the ruined southern port city of Mariupol, Ukrainian fighters holed up in the steel plant that represents the last pocket of resistance said concentrated bombing overnight killed and wounded more people. And authorities warned that a lack of safe drinking water inside the city could lead to outbreaks of deadly diseases.

The fresh attacks came as the United Nations chief met in Kyiv with Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy and surveyed the destruction in small towns outside the capital that saw some of the worst horrors of the first onslaught of the war.

UN Secretary-General António Guterres condemned the atrocities committed in towns like Bucha, where evidence of mass killings of civilians was found after Russia retreated in the face of unexpectedly stiff resistance. He said Ukraine has become "an epicenter of unbearable heartache and pain."

"Wherever there is a war, the highest price is paid by civilians," Guterres lamented, reiterating the importance of investigating alleged war crimes. Shortly after Zelenskyy and Guterres held a news conference, explosions shook Kyiv, and flames poured out of windows in at least two buildings in the capital city, which has been relatively unscathed in recent weeks.

The explosions, which appeared to be one of boldest attacks on Kyiv since Russian forces retreated from around the capital weeks ago, came as Kyiv residents have been increasingly returning to the city. Cafes and other businesses have reopened, and a growing numbers of people have been out and about, enjoying the spring weather. AP

UN chief condemns 'absurdity' of war in Ukraine visit

BUCHA: UN Secretary-General Antonio Guterres on Thursday visited sites of alleged Russian war crimes in Ukraine, decrying war as "an absurdity in the 21st century" and urging Russia to cooperate with an international investigation into atrocities. Making his first visit to Ukraine since Russia launched a full-scale invasion on February 24, Guterres toured several towns and villages outside Kyiv where Russian forces are accused of killing civilians. "I imagine my family in one of those houses that is now destroyed and black. I see my granddaughters running away in panic," the UN chief said in Borodianka, a ruined town north-east of the Ukrainian capital. AFP

Biden proposes $33 bn package for Ukraine

WASHINGTON

US President Joe Biden on Thursday proposed a huge $33 billion package for arming and supporting Ukraine, saying that "caving" in to Russia is not an option for the West as the war stretches into a third month.

Speaking in the White House, Biden also outlined proposed new laws to allow using luxury assets stripped from Russian oligarchs under unprecedented sanctions to compensate Ukraine for the destruction wreaked by the invading Russians. He acknowledged the dramatic costs of US backing for Ukraine, but said there was no real choice in the struggle with Russian President Vladimir Putin. "The cost of this fight is not cheap. But caving to aggression is going to be more costly if we allow it to happen," he said. Reflecting the scale of the US assistance to Ukraine, Biden confirmed that the US has already sent 10 tank-killing weapons for every Russian tank sent into the country. AP

Nationwide strike cripples Lanka as pressure mounts on prez to quit

COLOMBO

MILLIONS of workers staged a crippling strike in Sri Lanka on Thursday, adding to pressure on President Gotabaya Rajapaksa and his ruling family to quit over the country's worst-ever economic crisis.

The island nation of 22 million people has been hit by months of acute shortages of food, fuel and medicines, prompting widespread protests.

But Thursday's nationwide strike was the first time the entire country had been brought to a standstill since the demonstrations began, with both state and private sector employees taking part.

Public transport was stopped, teachers quit school while shops and offices closed, police and regional officials said.

Rajapaksa invited leaders of his party to discuss the crisis on Friday, but former coalition partner the Sri Lanka Freedom Party (SLFP) said they will not attend and instead told him to step down.

Prime Minister Mahinda Rajapaksa, Gotabaya's elder brother and a former two-term president, has said he is confident he will not be fired over the crisis.

In Colombo's main commercial area of Pettah, wholesale trading shops were shut and workers joined a march chanting: "Go home Gota. Go home Gota," referring to the president.

More than 100 trade unions, some even affiliated with the Rajapaksas' ruling Sri Lanka Podujana Peramuna (SLPP) party, joined the general strike, demanding the president, prime minister and other senior officials resign. "Today is like a public holiday in the country," said a police official monitoring the situation, speaking on condition of anonymity. "Hospitals are treating only emergency cases."

Across the nation, vegetable markets were closed, while tea plantations, a main export earner, were also shut, residents and local media said.

Tens of thousands of workers in the country's free trade zones came out of their factories and staged protests demanding the powerful Rajapaksa family step down.

Most banks were closed while a few provided reduced hours of service.

On the brighter side, a daily power cut that has become a feature of the crisis was not implemented Thursday as electricity employees took part in the work stoppage.

The main international airport operated without interruption, officials said. Trade union leaders said they ensured the airport functioned normally as an essential service.

By afternoon, shops across the country had closed in solidarity with the trade unions, local television reported. AFP

TELECOM AUCTION

Govt may further reduce base price of 5G spectrum

TRAI recommended price cut by nearly 39% as against the previously fixed price

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

THE government on Thursday hinted that it may further cut the 5G spectrum base price in the upcoming auction.

Telecom minister Ashwini Vaishnaw, in an interaction with media, said spectrum price should be reasonable to ensure the last-mile connectivity.

The minister called spectrum a developmental tool, and telecom services as necessary as air, water, health and education. "Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (TRAI) has made a few changes in price of its 5G recommendation. However, there is demand from the industry to further lower the price. To speak on this issue in the press, I think it is not the right forum. But we will consider their demand, in a systematic way," he said.

He added that the world agreed that spectrum was a tool for development and it was as necessary as water, air, health, education, and electricity.

"Thus, I am confident this price issue will be resolved," the minister remarked.

Vaishanw said the industry was stable after the reforms introduced by Prime Minister Narendra Modi in September 2021 and now, the industry wanted to grow further.

TRAI has recommended cut in price by nearly 39% compared to the previously fixed price. But the industry has expressed its disappointment at the sector regulator's recommendations on the 5G spectrum pricing and said the rates were still the highest in the world. The Cellular Operator Association of India, which represents all the three telecom operators- Reliance Jio, Vodafone Idea and Bharti Airtel -- said TRAI has only recommended a 35-40% cut in prices as against their demand of 90% cut.

> TRAI has made a few changes in price of its 5G recommendation. I am confident this price issue will be resolved. DoT is working as per schedule and auction is likely to to hold in June
>
> Telecom minister Ashwini Vaishnaw

On the auction of 5G, the minister said the Department of Telecommunication was working as per schedule and it was expected to be held in early June.

The minister added that the Digital Communications Commission will take a call on the recommendations and approach them for clarification.

LIC policyholders open record number of demat accounts

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

STATE-OWNED largest insurer Life Insurance Corporation (LIC) to be listed on the bourses on May 17, and it has already generated huge interest among policyholders, as close to 1.21 crore demat accounts have been opened by LIC policyholders.

Rahul Jain, director of the Department of Investment and Public Asset Management (DIPAM), told TNIE that over 6.48 crore policyholders have linked PAN numbers with their LIC policies before the last cut-off date - February 28, 2022.

"These people are eligible to participate in the IPO if they open their demat accounts. Also, till now a record number of demat accounts have been opened. Through the depositories, we could make out that around 1.21 crore demat accounts have been opened by the policyholders," Jain said.

LIC has over 28 crore policyholders and life funds of worth ₹34.3 lakh crore. Policyholders will get a discount of ₹60 per share, and LIC is expecting a huge participation from them.

"There is a fair degree of interest in the LIC IPO from retail investors. We opened nearly 45,000 accounts for the IPO alone last month. Of these, 40% of customers are new to the market," B Gopkumar, MD & CEO, Axis Securities said.

Gopkumar added that a strong rebound in terms of NBP/APE (New Business Premium/Annual Premium Equivalent) growth enabling market share gains in Q4FY22 hints at strong investor interest before the IPO.

Data from two depositories show that 14.2 million new demat accounts were opened in FY21. Brokerage firm Zerodha told TNIE that the policyholder category is new for everyone and investors have in great numbers linked their PAN with their LIC policy to be eligible for the category in the IPO.

Religare Broking has seen a 20-25% rise in retail direct client acquisition in the last month.

Close to 34 lakh demat accounts were added in December 2021.

EMPLOYMENT IN ORGANISED SECTOR RISES: GOVT SURVEY

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

INDICATING an upward trend in employment in the organised sector, a labour ministry survey released on Thursday showed as many as 3.14 crore workers were employed in firms with 10 or more workers in 9 selected sectors in the December quarter of 2021. The number of workers stood at nearly 3.10 crore in the preceding quarter.

The Labour and Employment Ministry's third quarterly employment survey (QES) report for the October-December 2021 period, covers 9 sectors including manufacturing, construction, trade, transport, education, health, accommodation & restaurants, IT/ BPOs and financial services.

Manufacturing sector is the largest employer accounting for around 39% of the estimated total number of workers followed by education sector 22%, the survey said.

The manufacturing sector had the maximum number of workers during the period at 124 lakh, followed by education at 69.26 lakh. They were followed by IT/BPOs (34.57 lakh), health (32.86 lakh), trade (16.81 lakh), transport (13.20 lakh), financial services (8.85 lakh), accommodation and restaurants (8.11 lakh), and construction (6.19 lakh). It noted that 85.3% of the workers were Regular workers and 8.9% were contract workers.

Union Labour Minister Bhupender Yadav in a tweet said, "Happy to inform the report on 3rd Round (Oct -Dec, 2021) of Quarterly Employment Survey shows a rising trend in employment in organised sector, employing 10 or more workers, of the selected 9 sectors."

"The number of workers employed stood at 314.54 lakh," he added. About 1.85 lakhs vacancies were reported across the 9 sectors, according to the survey.

The survey is taken up by the Labour Bureau to provide frequent (quarterly) updates about the employment and related variables of establishments in both organised and unorganized segments of the nine select sectors, which account for a majority of the total employment in the non-farm establishments.

Procter & Gamble Q4 net profit up 4.6%

Procter & Gamble Hygiene and Health Care on Thursday reported a 4.59% increase in its net profit to ₹102.85 crore for the quarter ended March 2022, as compared to ₹98.33 crore in the corresponding quarter last year. The company's revenue from operations rose 28.11% to ₹973.26 crore as against ₹759.66 crore in the January-March period last year. Its total expenses were at ₹828.19 crore, up 28.36% against ₹645.18 crore. "In a challenging market environment, we recorded strong double-digit sales growth driven by strong brand fundamentals and improved market execution. Excluding the one-time impact, our productivity efforts led to a strong double digit profit growth," Madhusudan Gopalan, managing director, Procter & Gamble Hygiene and Health Care Ltd. Said in a statement. "As we navigate the challenging cost environment, we will continue to focus on improving productivity," said Gopalan. ENS

Vedanta reports ₹7,570 crore net profit in Q4

Mining major Vedanta on Thursday reported a consolidated profit after tax of ₹7,570 cr for Q4FY22 on the back of higher sales, supportive commodity prices and operational efficiencies. The company had posted a profit after tax of ₹5,105 cr in the year-ago period. The exceptional items at ₹336 cr in last quarter primarily relate to ₹2,697 cr gain from impairment reversal in oil and gas, which was partially offset by exploration cost written off in Cairn. The company's revenue from operations in the period under review rose to ₹39,342 cr from ₹27,874 cr a year ago. Its expenses stood at ₹29,901 cr in the quarter against ₹22,549 cr in the year-ago period. "Achieved highest ever consolidated EBITDA of ₹13,768 cr in 4QFY22. This 51% y-o-y and 26% Q-o-Q growth was mainly due to higher sales volume, supportive commodity prices and operational efficiencies despite higher cost of production amidst input commodity inflation," Vedanta said. PTI

Ambuja's net profit falls 25% in March quarter

Ambuja Cement, whose stakeholder Holcim is reportedly in talks with Adani Group, for a exit, reported a fall of over 25% in its net profit in Q4FY22 due to rise in fuel prices. The Co's standalone PAT came in at Rs 495 crore in Q4FY22 as against ₹665 crore in the same quarter last fiscal. The fall in PAT came even as the cement maker reported a 7.11% year-on-year rise in net sales at ₹3,855 crore for the March quarter compared with ₹3,579 crore in the same quarter last year. Sales volume for the quarter stood at 7.49 million tonnes compared with 7.24 million tonnes in the corresponding quarter last year. Ambuja's consolidated net profit plunged 30.26%to Rs 856.46 crore for the first quarter ended March 2022. It had clocked a net profit of ₹1,228.24 crore a year ago, Ambuja Cements said. The January to March 2022 quarter was impacted by rising fuel prices due to which EBITDA during the quarter was lower by 19%, the company said. ENS

Smartphone market falls 1% in Q1 of FY22 in India

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

INDIA'S smartphone market declined 1% year-on-year to 38 million units in the first quarter of this year due to supply constrained, according to Counterpoint Research's Market Monitor.

The research also noted that the Chinese brands held a 74% share in Q1, FY22, Xiaomi leading the market with a 23% share, followed by Samsung, realme, vivo and OPPO, respectively.

"The component issues were a major reason for this fall and affected nearly all brands. Original equipment manufacturers (OEMs) are adopting various strategies to tackle the supply issues such as expanding the supplier portfolio and increasing local sourcing. However, the market is expected to remain modest in Q2, 2022 as well due to supply disruptions arising from the COVID situation in China," said Prachir Singh, Senior Research Analyst.

In terms of market share, Xiaomi retained the top position in Q1FY22, though it declined 13% YoY. South Korean tech giant Samsung recaptured the second spot with a 1% YoY decline and realme is the only brand among the top five players to experience YoY growth (40%). Vivo remained at the fourth spot with an 8% YoY decline. Oppo has been consistent in its fifth position in the market but it declined 18% YoY. Apple grew 5% YoY and remained the top-selling brand in the premium segment (above ₹30,000).

"Aggressive offers on the iPhone 13 and iPhone 12 series in the offline channel drove this growth. Apple has been aggressive in expanding its manufacturing capabilities in the country as well as increasing its offline reach," reads the research.

Amazon: Make RIL party to FRL hearing

RAM SAHGAL @ Mumbai

THE senior counsel for Amazon , whose application for interim relief is being heard by the Delhi HC , reportedly asked for Reliance to be made a party to the hearing, which involves the e-commerce giant praying against Future Retail's alleged alienation of its assets and seeking status quo.

The hearing on this matter will continue next week , those present in court told TNIE.

Amazon alleges FRL colluded with Reliance to transfer 835 stores to the latter in February, despite an injunction against transfer or sale of its assets being passed by a Singapore Arbitral Tribunal and assurances given to the SC by FRL that no prejudice would be caused to Amazon while approval for a ₹25,700 cr deal with RIL was being sought by Future Group's shareholders and creditors. The deal was called off by both FRL and Reliance as creditors voted against the same earlier this month. FRL owes ₹29,000 cr to creditors. Bank of India has already initiated insolvency proceedings against FRL and a hearing on admission to insolvency court will be reportedly heard by NCLT next month.

Infosys skips joint meet with labour ministry over non-compete clause

SAMIKSHA GOEL @ New Delhi

INFOSYS, which received a notice from the labour ministry to attend a discussion on its non-compete clause, skipped the said meeting on Thursday. The next date for the discussion is May 16, 2022.

Taking cognizance of IT employees' union NITES' complaint on the clause added by Infosys in its offer letters, the ministry had decided to hold a tripartite joint discussion on the issue on Thursday, April 28.

NITES President Harpreet Singh Saluja said Infosys was absent from the meeting. Saluja, who represented the IT employees at the meeting, said, "NITES has strongly demanded that the illegal non-compete agreement be removed from the offer letters."

Infosys earlier said it was a 'standard business practice' in many parts of the world for employment contracts to include controls of reasonable scope and duration to protect confidentiality of information, customer connection and other legitimate business interests.

"These are fully disclosed to job aspirants before they decide to join Infosys," it had said. The contract stated for six months after the end of employment, the employee won't accept a job offer from any customer with whom they had worked in a professional capacity. They are also barred from taking offer from any named competitor if it would involve them having to work with a customer, with whom they had worked in the 12 month preceding the termination of employment.

Govt gets higher dividend than estimates from CPSEs

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

WITH the revival of economic activities after Covid cases subsided, the central public sector enterprises (CPSEs) registered improvement in their profitability in the financial year ending March 31, FY 22.

As per finance ministry sources, Centre received ₹59,100 crore dividend from CPSEs in FY 22, ₹13,100 crore more than the revised estimates of ₹46,000 crore. This is the second straight year when the Centre's dividend receipts stood higher than the revised budget estimates. In FY21, the government had received ₹39,022 crore from CPSEs, more than the revised budget estimate of ₹34,717 crore.

Dividends and profits from CPSEs are important source of income for Centre, which come under the non-tax revenue category. According to the the rules, CPSEs need to pay 30% of post-tax profit or 5%of net worth, whichever is higher, as dividend every year to the government.

Campus IPO a blockbuster, issue subscribed 51.75 times by final day

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

CAMPUS ACTIVEWEAR's initial public offering (IPO) received thumps up from investors as the offer got subscribed 51.75 times by the end of April 28, the final day of bidding.

The issue, which was opened on April 26, received bids for over 174 crore equity shares as against the leading footwear brand's offer size of 3.36 crore equity shares.

Qualified institutional investors led the subscription with their reserved portion getting subscribed 152.04 times, followed by non-institutional investors who bid shares 22.25 times the allotted quota. Retail investors' quota was subscribed 7.7 times while that of employees portion was booked 2.11 times.

Market experts believe that the IPO will give a decent listing gain despite current volatility as it is commanding a premium of 30% in the grey market. The IPO, which is worth ₹1,400 crore in size, is entirely an offer for sale by investors and promoters. The price band of the IPO was kept at ₹278-292 per share.

"At the upper price band, the company is valued at 8x market cap/sales and around 93x P/E (price-to-earnings) on TTM (trailing 12 months) basis," said ICICI Direct in a note. The brokerage assigned a subscribe rating given its niche positioning in a fast growing segment, which would enable it to deliver sustainable profitable growth.

According to the note, the company registered a healthy revenue CAGR of around 20% in FY18-20 with average EBITDA margins of around 18%.

Stokes appointed as England Test captain

Ben Stokes was appointed as captain of England's Test cricket team. The all-rounder replaced Joe Root, who quit the role two weeks ago with England having only won one of its last 17 Tests. Stokes has just returned to the team after a spell out for mental-health reasons. It is the first big decision by Rob Key, who was recently hired as managing director of men's cricket in England.

IT'S TIME FOR PLAN B

Having lost five games on trot, 2021 finalists Kolkata need to go back to drawing board

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @ Chennai

NITISH Rana has played multiple roles for Kolkata Knight Riders since joining the side in 2018. Spin-hitter through the middle-overs? Check. Fire-fighting to rescue a lost cause? Check. Staying till the end to try and post a respectable target? Check. On Thursday against Delhi Capitals, Nitish Rana, who came in at No 6, played all three roles across 12 overs to lift them to 146. When he walked in, the score was 4/35 from 7.3 overs. They were in a mess, their batting was about as entertaining as watching paint dry on slow motion (it was painful) and the run-scoring was non-existent.

After fire-fighting with Shreyas Iyer — the pair stitched a 48-run stand to inject some life into proceedings — the southpaw blossomed at the back-end of the innings to finish with 57 off 34 balls. The rest of the team, put together, made 85 off 86 balls, an indication of just how bad Kolkata were and just how good Rana was. What worked for Rana was he picked his battles and angles, played out Kuldeep Yadav who had another fine night's work (4/14 off three overs) and laid into Delhi's sixth bowler (24 off the 32 runs Lalit Yadav conceded came from Rana's blade).

Delhi made heavy weather of chasing 147 — they only got there with four wickets and 6 balls remaining — but will nonetheless be happy to move to eight points on the table.

Moving away from Rana, Kolkata, who have now lost five games on the bounce, have to look at themselves in the mirror to escape this batting funk they find themselves in. It's a franchise that has embraced excel sheets and analytics. In Brendon McCullum, they also have somebody who marries data with lived real world experiences. At Wankhede, both McCullum and the team of analysts would have come to the same conclusion. They aren't very good right now. They must undergo a surgery or two if they still have designs on making a late charge to the playoffs. It's not outside the realm of possibility: they did something similar last year which enabled them to reach the final.

It should start with some sort of stability at the top. Right now, they don't even know what kind of starts they are after. Against Delhi, they opened with Aaron Finch and Venkatesh Iyer, a third different pair in three games (they have had four different opening pairs in nine matches). It suggests the franchise are caught in two minds.

The way their openers went about against Delhi's new ball bowlers was an apt metaphor of the team right now. Their batting, and, to be fair, most of the first innings, was slow. Briefscores: KKR 146/9 in 20 ovs (Rana 57; Kuldeep 4/14, Mustafizur 3/18) lost to DC 150/6 in 19 ovs (Warner 42, Powell 33 n.o, Umesh 3/24).

Kerala thrash Karnataka, enter final

AGENCIES @ Mallapuram

SUPER-SUB Jesin TK scored five as Kerala thrashed Karnataka 7-3 to move a step closer to winning their seventh Hero Santosh Trophy title in the first semifinal at the Manjeri Payyanad Stadium here in Mallapuram on Thursday.

Prior to the match, Kerala coach Bino George had mentioned how he will never waver from his attacking philosophy and his team showed just that as they scored almost at will. It was a perfect display of attacking football with Jesin being the star of the night. The substitute striker showed calmness under pressure and with this display, a new star was born.

Kerala's game plan was keeping hold of the ball and trying to thread the ball through the Karnataka defence. Skipper Jijo Joseph was the orchestrator in midfield as the hosts tried to go for the kill right from the whistle.

However, completely against the run of play, Karnataka took the lead. Their game plan was very simple, sit back and defend in numbers and hit the hosts on the counter. And the ploy worked a treat in the 25th minute. Solaimalai N made a fine overlapping run down the left flank and his ball found skipper Sudheer Kotikela lurking at the back post who made no mistake to hand the four-time champions an unlikely lead. And it could have gotten even better. Biby Thomas' side initiated another counter-attack with Kotikela holding off the defenders and laying off a perfect ball for the onrushing Kamalesh P.

Ranji KOs in B'luru, final venue TBD

ENS @ Chennai

THE knockout phase of the Ranji Trophy will be held in Bengaluru from June 4 to 24, the Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI) announced on Thursday. However, with the M Chinnaswamy Stadium set to host a T20I against South Africa on June 19, the BCCI may be forced to delay the start of the Ranji Trophy final by a few days unless it changes the venue. After the group stage of the Ranji Trophy which was held in February-March, Bengal, Jharkhand, Mumbai, Uttarakhand, Karnataka, Uttar Pradesh, Punjab and Madhya Pradesh have made it the knockout stages.

In a letter to the state units, the BCCI revealed that there won't be any mandatory quarantine before the start of the knockout stages, but teams will continue to remain in a bubble. With the Covid situation improving across the country, the BCCI has also decided to allot rooms on a sharing basis for all the players and support staff. Since the onset of the pandemic, players and support staff haven't been allowed to share rooms.

TWO EASY FOR LIVERPOOL

Liverpool kept up their quadruple hopes alive with a routine 2-0 first-leg win over Villarreal in the semifinals of the Champions League. A look at the match...

4
If Liverpool advance to the final, it will be their fourth European final since 2016.

NO FUSS WIN

If the game on Tuesday was marked by chaos, Wednesday's was akin to a siesta after a big lunch. Liverpool always knew they were going to win, Villarreal always knew Liverpool were going to win and they were focused on keeping the margin down. In the end, the Spaniards had one shot on goal and 26 per cent possession.

14
Sadio Mane now has 14 goals in the knockout stages of CL.

REDS FLEX MUSCLE

They have quietly updated their strikeforce and Sadio Mane, who was the centre forward on Wednesday, scored the goal that likely put the tie beyond the La Liga side. That Colombian Luis Diaz started on the left while able to put Diogo Jota on the bench is a testament to their off-field work.

ENGLAND, EUROPE'S BEST

This is a debate that will keep going on but the Premier League's sides are making a serious case for being the best in Europe. Both Man City and Liverpool won and are now within 90 minutes of making it a second all-England CL final in consecutive years.

Srihari sets meet records

ENS @ Bengaluru

ALL eyes were on boxing and swimming at the Khelo India University Games in Bengaluru on Thursday. With it being the final day in both the sports at the KIUG, and a number of gold medals in the offing, it got some major attention and the athletes did not disappoint as well with some high-quality performances on display.

Ace swimmer Srihari Nataraj created two new meet records in the 100m freestyle and the 50m backstroke with a timing of 50.98s and 26.10s, respectively. However, Siva Sridhar stole the show with an impressive haul of seven gold and two silver. Overall, it was Jain University, who dominated the pool with 14 golds.

New HPD eyes paradigm shift in lifting

INDRANEEL DAS @ Chennai

INDIA needs a 'transitional change' and the new High Performance Director (HPD) in weightlifting Aveenash Pandoo has been tasked to chalk out a programme that would take the country to the next level. The newly-appointed HPD was quietly seated in the back row observing the young talent going through their rituals on the platform during the Khelo India Youth Games on Wednesday. It was the last day of weightlifting but he had been a regular visitor at the Jain University campus venue in Kannakapura near Bengaluru. The competition offered him an opportunity to know more about young lifters and their abilities.

Pandoo would be looking to overhaul the grassroots programme. He would be closely working with coaches and other support staff to usher in a "transitional change".

"India would be looking for a huge paradigm shift in terms of its performance in the 2024 and 2028 Olympics with a new generation coming and my position here is to basically bridge the gap in terms of athletes' development, coaching education and so on," he said. As for senior training, Pandoo said it's not part of his plan.
